Potter to Present the Swooner

By THAD VANCE
 Frank Sinatra took time out from his Saturday night show to host a special week to tele- phone Peter Potter at KNXT and pick up a rain check to guestar on "Peter Potter's Party" (Chan- nel 2, 11:15 p.m.). Frankie will be on the show tomorrow night. Sinatra returned to his first job for a week to fulfill his contract with the Los Angeles club engage- ment. He opens May 15 at the Cocomat Grove. The only other local vocal appearance he ever made was in 1941 as a member of the Tommy Dorsey orchestra, when Sinatra, Sinatra and Potter, then a young disc jockey, have been good friends since that time.

★ JUST FOR YOU . . . Betsy Mills and her harp are seen each Saturday evening at 10:30 on Channel 11 on a program designed just "For You Alone" ★

MAN WITH A HORN . . . It's Harry James and his trumpet every Sunday night on KNBH at 10 o'clock when Harry, his trumpeter and his four musical cranks show—a favorite with west coast listeners.

The campaigning is all over, the votes are all counted—and "King 102," America's Perfect Wrestler, is LOU THEZS, Nation. W. F. 11 g. Association champion. These came during the in a blaze of glory, winning the best of three series, 2-1, over his closest competitor, by 107,257 votes.

YOU DID IT!

--- Says Frank Dominguez

"Come take a picture of this!" . . . said Frank Dominguez to Herald photog as he walked by the store Thursday afternoon. "Yes, the Herald sure did it for me . . . over three hundred people came into my store from an advertisement in your paper last week an- nouncing our Westinghouse Freedom Fair. It's proof again of Torrance Herald readership and Torrance Herald pulling power!"
