VISIBILITY UNLIMITED!

The '52 Ford lets you see in all directions! Look out its huge curved, one-piece windshield, its car-wide rear window. Look out its picture windows all around. That's Ford's new Full-Circle Visibility, just one of the many fine-car features you get in this low-priced beauty.

White sidewall tires optional at extra cost. Equipment, accessories and trim subject to change without notice.

NEW MODERN DESIGN BODIES! They're the newest, most advanced in the low-price field—styled to stay beautiful, built to stay young! New bull-right construction seals out dust and noise. Easier-working Power-Pivot Pedals eliminate drafty floor holes.

NOW! ADVANCED AUTOMATIC RIDE CONTROL. Ford's wider front tread, diagonally mounted rear shock absorbers and longer rear springs add up to a curve-gripping, bump-leveling ride. Ford's new steering is nearly 25% easier!

"Test Drive" the greatest low-priced car ever built

Jeff Jones, TV's Rugged Rough, and Ready Private Eye Is An Ex-Vassar Man

Don Haggerty, the rugged "private eye" in the "Files of Jeffrey Jones" hardly seems like the type of guy you would expect to find attending Vassar—a girls school. Yet the ex-GI is actually a graduate of the famous all-girl (before Haggerty) college.

Haggerty's rugged good looks (a broad-shouldered six-footer with hazel eyes and dark hair), his natural prowess as an athlete, his educational background and his three years in the Military and Counter Intelligence of the Army plus wide experience in the theatre, radio and motion pictures make him an ideal choice for his star role in the "Files of Jeffrey Jones," KNXT, Monday at 9:30 p.m.

After graduating from Brown University of Rhode Island, Don continued his education at Vassar College where he was one of three male students studying at Vassar's experimental theatre among, what seemed to him, "tens of thousands of college girls."

From Vassar Haggerty went into summer stock and then to Broadway, where he played in several hit shows including "Mr. and Mrs. North," and "One Sunday Afternoon." He also toured the east with various theatrical companies, and on these tours appeared in a number of favorites, two of which were "Taming of the Shrew" and "Warrior's Husband."

But it was a "March of Time" show that attracted Hollywood's attention to him. That show was
