The man who elevated the lowly accordion to a featured spot on the nation's top bandstands serves up his distinctive brand of Champagne Music, Friday evening at 8:30 on KTLA, Channel 5, direct from Ocean Park's Aragon ballroom, where the popular Lawrence Welk orchestra appears nightly.

From the time he was a small boy on a farm in the Black Hills of North Dakota, musical stylings by Lawrence Welk was fascinated by the accordion. He still remembers the great day when his first instrument, now the popular purveyor of sparkling happiness in the pond of over a $5,000 account, first advertised as saxophone and later augmented by trumpet, trombone and clarinet, as well as his vocal attractions.

Billed vocalist Garth Anderson as the actual head and hand Sur-ton contrived to sculpt while in an eastern penitentiary. These were to be used in an attempt to escape from the prison. The extraordinary "props" were acquired from the New York Police Department.

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERREVE, JR.

GOD'S GREATEST GIFT

Would you say electricity is his greatest gift? It is great but not great.

We stand in awe of a doctor and his skill; new drugs are acclaimed; without question they are among his greatest gifts but they are not his greatest.

His greatest gift is a baby, brought of heaven. Life, spirit, cannot be duplicated by a human being. God endows a tiny morsel of flesh with His spirit and it breathes.

A parent treasures his new baby above all things on this earth; it is his love, to cherish, to nurture, to hold and teach. Its tiny arms entwined around his neck makes him strong as Hercules, yet humble, in the presence of the Divine. A smile, hug and kiss is the nectar of heavenly bliss, for that babe came from His arms, God's greatest gift to man.
