

EC EYES LEAGUE CROWN; MEET VIKES

Tartars to Seek 3rd League Win

Stock Autos—
Try to Knock
Hornet Mark

Stock car racing history will be written Sunday afternoon at Carrell Speedway when the fabulous Hudson Hornet will get its most severe test in the URA 100-mile stock car championships.

Two of the brand new autos, one a 1953 Dodge V-8 with a 140 hp Red Ram engine, and the other a 1952 De Soto with power steering will be the cars which figure on stopping Hudson's domination of stock car races.

Others in the classic will be Wayne Dickerson's Olds '48, Stan Noble's Ford V-8, Marv Panch's Merc, and Plymouths, Lincolns and Studebakers. Sunday's 100-miler starts at 2:30.

Babes Set to Win One For III Team Member

Set to make a sharp appearance in their final home town show of the year, the Torrance Bees this afternoon play host to a game with the Beverly Hills bunch in a Bay League classic. Game time has been set for 3 p. m. at the High School Stadium. And it'll be a game played for Fred Diesel, Tartar backfield flash who last week was taken to General Hospital with polio. Fred yesterday was in critical condition. Team members each took time to write a letter to Fred this week, and made it plain that this one was for him.

Carlos Skaggs will be relied on heavily in the backfield, especially on defense. Carlos has whipped up into one of the smoothest performers on the Bee squad.

Assist Skaggs Assisting Skaggs on defense, a vital part of the activities if the locals hope to halt the Norman Bees, will be Bobby Wilson and Billy Reeves.

Carrying the seed for Torrance will be Jerry Burns at the wingback spot, Don Ivata, who doubles on defense; Sonny Steele, a newcomer, and Don Forth, the Babe's stellar passer. Steady light but shifty ball packer, is working into a fine performer, and lacks nothing but experience. Little, as usual of Bee squads, is known of Beverly Hills, except that like their bigger brothers they'd like to blast the Tartars to get at least one win for the season.

Torrance Rod, Gun Club Plans Award Banquet

Members of the Torrance Rod and Gun Club are making plans for an annual award dinner, it was revealed this week. A meeting was held at McMaster Park where sportsmen were told of the plans and in turn revealed their latest sporting ventures. Registrations were recorded for salmon weighing over 25 pounds nabbed by club members. Those who signed up were Johnny Rowe, Ernie Malay, Julius Kline and Helen Smith.

Duck hunters were successful with the following members bringing back mallards from the Bishop area: Jack Stephens, Dean Barkdull, Lloyd Fullerton and Benny Smith.

Several Torrance members met with the Gardena Rod and Gun Club at Mission Bay in San Diego over the week-end fishing, but wound up with nothing but a pair of traffic tickets.

Juniors, boys and girls 12 years or older, are urged to join the Junior Torrance Rod Gun Club, it was pointed out. Information can be obtained from any member, or at the Torrance Cycle Shop.

Normans to Host Locals Tomorrow

A powerful but possibly overconfident Torrance varsity grid squad will attempt to make it win No. 3 in Bay League circles tomorrow afternoon as they whop it up with the Beverly Hills eleven on the Normans home field.

The Tartars are fresh from the Redondo Seahawks last weekend, while the Hills' lads are still groping around for their initial loop victory.

Coach Cliff Graybehl said yesterday that Harry Bayliss, the locals candidate for All Conference honors, is a doubtful starter — in fact, a doubtful player for the day. Harry has been nursing a "Charlie horse" throughout the week and may be sidelined for tomorrow's warm activities.

Smith May Start

Burt Smith, one of the Tartars best all-around athletes, will be assigned to the starting half-back job and should see lots of ball action. Other regulars probably will get Graybehl's nod tomorrow, with Beryl Jones, Don Kasten and Jim Murphy rounding up the crew.

The Normans, who have tallied only 70 points as against 111 piled up by foes, go into the fray tomorrow underdogs, but, with the knowledge that they have more than once in the past rared back to blast the Tartars with upset wins.

Only two years ago, the locals were riding high until they met a lowly Norman squad. In the waning minutes of play, a blocked Tartar punt — sent astray by a Torrance back — rolled 40 yards into the end zone for a BH tee-dee; it also gave the Hills' people the game.

Nearly the Hawks' Beverly nearly tied Redondo in the opening loop melee of the year, as two conversions kicked by Seahawk back Doug Dick gave his lads a two-point edge. Then, Louzinger jabbed a 126 loss at Beverly the following weekend.

The Tartars have racked up 128 points compared to 81 tallied by foes in all games played to date. A 42-0 blasting over Montebello while other league elvens took a bye helped in no little way to bolster the total and paved the way for a psychological boast to help drop Redondo the following week.

Coaches Worry

Worrying Tartar coaches this week was a "let-down" feeling which permeated the local grid-ders, possibly because of a slight feeling of over-confidence with an apparently easy game billed for the week.

Raiders, Cards Clash Today in Flag Football

The Rambling Raiders and the El Tiro Cards tackle today at 4 p.m. on the Walteria Park gridiron as flag football leagues continue in full swing.

The Raiders fell to the North Torrance Rams 5-0 last week, and El Tiro took a 32-0 drubbing from the Streaks, both in Junior Division clashes.

Other results were: Junior Division — Yellow Jackets, 24; Streaks, 19; Yellow Jackets, 31; Rambling Raiders, 21; Hornets, 8; Nativity, 0; Midget Division — Greens, 13; Seaside, 0; Torrels, 21; Walteria, 0; Bulldogs, 42; Wildcats, 6; Eagles, 8; Tigers, 0.

Games Saturday in the YMCA Recreation Department sponsored series are: McMaster Park—Bulldogs vs. Tigers, 9:30; Wildcats vs. Eagles, 10:30; Torrance Park—Greens vs. Torrels, 9:30; Green Jackets vs. North Torrance Rams, 9:30; Hornets vs. Walteria, 10:30; Rambling Raiders vs. Streaks, 10:30; Nativity vs. Seaside, 11:30.

TORRANCE'S CHUCK BINGHAM Sparks Front Line

Warriors Seek 4th Loop Win From Vikes

Whether "you liked Ike" or it was "Adlai for you" the election fight is over, but for El Camino's championship-seeking Warriors, the battle is still to come.

With three league wins salted away on the shelf, the Norm Vikes' charges will enter the Long Beach Memorial Stadium Saturday night favored to make it a fourth-over the local T-attack. Fans who tee-viewed the Harbor-Warrior game said they were unimpressed by the locals, but the fact that Crawford and QB Don Lauria relied on but five or six plays for the entire evening helped to make the game rather unexciting.

Vikes Blasted

The Vikes were overhauled by the Little Rose Bowl-seeking Valley Monarchs last week-end, while Caminos had the day off. But to be sure, many a Warrior spy was on hand to view the festivities.

It was a last-minute rally for the Vikes as they were topped 7-0 by their hosts as half-time. Injuries plagued the LB crew, with star signal caller Rusty Fairly sitting it out for the second half. The loss was the first in loop play for Long Beach.

Completely dominating the ground and air play, the Vikes crushed to 215 yards on the ground as against 125 for the victors. In the air, LB completed 8 out of 18 tosses for a total pass yardage of 129.

Camino Promises

Camino promises to be in tip-top shape for the affair, with QB Bill Crawford set to take to the air route to pick up TDs if Jim Carmichael's grass-roots tactics fail to dent the Vike line. The neophyte Warrior hurler burst into his own several weeks ago and since has spark-plugged the local T-attack. Fans who tee-viewed the Harbor-Warrior game said they were unimpressed by the locals, but the fact that Crawford and QB Don Lauria relied on but five or six plays for the entire evening helped to make the game rather unexciting.

Outstanding for the Blue and Gray lads last outing were Irwin Kasten, defensive and offensive end sharpie; Bob Weinberger, lineman deluxe; Vince Benstead, ball-snapping specialist; Bill Coffey, defensive line stalwart; Stan Swanson, rugged guard; Jerry Horn, 6-foot, 150-pound end; Chuck Wheeler, end, hurt last game but on mend; Pres Dills, 210-pound tackle; Bob Warnock, hard-hitting lineman, and Tom Johnston, small but fiery tackle.

In case you get lost, Memorial Stadium is located at Carson St. and Lakewood Blvd. in Long Beach.
