MIDGETS TRIM NORMANS 19-6 IN HOME TUFF

By HARRY FRALICH

The Torrance Bees defeated the Beverly Hills Normans 19 to 6 Thursday afternoon on the home field in a game which they won for teammate Fred Diesel who is recovering from polio.

The Tartars scored in the second quarter when Don Forth's pass to Bobby Moon was good for 25 yards and a tee dee. The conversion was missed and the Tartars led 6-0. Two more touchdowns were called back before the half time intermission was ordered.

Show Pass Work
To start the second half rolling, the Tartars once more showed their outstanding pass offense. Forth's flip to speedster Jerry Burns was good for another TD and the Tartars increased their scoring margin by 12 points.

The locals continued to pass Beverly silly as Bill Meacham took his turn at the tossing. Meacham connected with Bob Moon for the third and final counter and Forth ran over for the conversion.

Finally scoring in the fourth period, the yearling Normans intercepted a Tartar pass and pushed it across. The Tartars again were on a scoring drive as the game ended.

Forth, Carl's Skaggs and Jerry Burns were the outstanding performers for Torrance. Also, Bob Hopkins, El Alvarez, Greg Jenkins, Bob Wilson, Manuel Bulgarau and Jim Reeves all turned in fine performances.

Carol J. Bender Home on Leave From Air Force

Home on 30-day convalescent leave is Major Carol J. Bender, son of Mrs. William Hiatt, of 21502 Berendo.

Major Bender, whose brother, Bert, is employed at the National Supply Co., was hospitalized recently following the failure of oxygen equipment in a test chamber.

A graduate of Torrance High School in 1935 and one of the Compton Junior College, Bender entered the Air Force the day after Pearl Harbor in 1941 and has remained on active duty since.

During World War II he was a pilot on the famed TARP, a B-17 which received numerous honors for missions over Germany.

He is now stationed at the Rapid City Air Force Base near Weaver, South Dakota. A daughter, Linda, lives in Sacramento, and another brother, Robert, lives in Victorville.

Beverly Cops First Win Against Locals

Two passes—a long, long toss good for 79 yards, and an interception—was the game in a nutshell Friday as Tartar Bay League hopes flickered away when the Beverly Hills Normans scored their first season win.

The local had played their worst game of the season as they went down 7-6 at the hands of an equally poor Beverly eleven.

Don Long, a Beverly sophomore quarterback who handled the ball more than most of the other players combined, operated out of the TCU spread for the first half, then threw in some T-formation stuff for variety in the last periods.

Hold Back Attack

Torrance held back a strong Beverly attack early in the opening quarter as the win-hungry Normans kept the Tartars wrapped up in their own territory. After holding the hosts for four downs within the locals' own 12-yard line, the Tartars took over on their own 11.

Two plays later Harry Bayliss and Beryl Jones had cracked up to the 20. Then, on third down, with 8 to go, the Tartars decided to boot it out.

All of the Tartars, that is, but Coaches Cliff Graybehl, Willard Morgan and Vern Wolfe. A time out gave the mentors a chance to send in slinging specialist Jim Farrar.

Jim took the pill, drew back and tossed 43 yards in the air to Burt Smith on the far right sidelines. Burt gathered it in, and raced 79 yards to the goal.

Roy Muffs

Larry Roy, who has had a better-than-average point after touchdown record, missed, and the pignskin splattered against the uprights.

After kicking the vitalized Tartars for the first time of the day showed some spark. The locals took over on their own 29, pushed up a pair of yards, and on third down, Farrar tried a pass.

Defensive QB Don Zuckor, playing short, reached high into the air, sucked in Farrar's flip and roared over for a counter. Long lazily drop-kicked an end-over-end boot that gave the Normans a 7-6 lead.

From here on out, the Torrance crew was unable to muster a full-steam drive. Penalties were fast and furious, but more than one gave the locals a time-out break when it really counted.

Penalty Saves Life
Officials called a roughing the passer foul on the Hill men for one life-saver, as Mike Levan intercepted Farrar's pass. But the penalty, of course, gave the ball back to the home-boys. Penalties, however, were costly for the Tartars.

Injuries also hurt the Tartars. Chuck Bingham was brought out of the game in the second period and was unable to return to action the rest of the game. Harry Bayliss banged up his leg in the third quarter and painfully rested out the rest of the fray.

Burt Smith, called upon to pull the break-away moves after Bayliss was lost, also suffered a leg injury, and had a difficult time maneuvering.

Beverly Standouts

Don Long and Mike Levanthal were big guns for the hosts, each getting the nod for the outstanding play of the day.

For the locals, Jamie Brown, Ted Marcoux, Don Frattapole, Dick Cosgrove, Dan Mayers, Harold Phillips all played good hard ball, but evidently suffered a severe hangover from last week's trouncing of the Redondo Seahawks.

Pass defense was remarkably better, as Joe Lafferty and Jim Murphy showed great improvement over last week's efforts.

Next week, it'll be the Inglewood Sentinels vs. the Tartars in the Bay League closer.

Pheasant Season Nears; Get $1 Licenses Early

Although the California pheasant hunting season doesn't open until November 22, the Department of Fish and Game has issued a warning to an estimated 175,000 ringneck hunters to buy their $1 pheasant tags early to avoid the disappointment of a possible sellout at their favorite license agency.

H. R. Dunbar, chief of the State's license sales, discloses that State law limits the number of licenses of tags issued to individual agents. An unexpected last-minute rush at one of the 3,000 agencies—especially in the pheasant hunting country—can cause a sell-out before the agent can re-order.

Dunbar also suggests that hunters buy tags in their hometown, thus relieving the seasonal burden on small agents.

CRAZY-LEGS SMITH . . . Torrance's Burt Smith reaches out to pick up a yard or two against the Beverly Hills Normans in a gloomy day game Friday afternoon at the Hills academy. The locals muffed a chance to assure a second place in the Bay League by dropping the contest 7-6. Moving in to stop Smith is Jeff Logan.

HAPPY WARRIOR . . . Bill Gray, former Torrance football tackle now at El Camino College, Friday was presented with this blue and white blanket inscribed with the name of every varsity Warrior team member. Gray suffered a broken neck in a Camino game early in the season and was confined to the hospital for nearly two months. Members of the student body at EC made the presentation in a pre-game pep rally.
