

Aged Woman Hurt in Fall

An aged Torrance woman received a nasty crack on the back of her head and a skinned arm when she tumbled from her wheel chair while enroute home Tuesday from the grocery store.

Mrs. Ruth F. North, 83, 2011 Andros, who uses her wheel chair as her primary method of transportation, fell to the pavement behind 2018 Carson St. She refused the offer of help of Torrance Police Officer Harvey Turrentine, and was taken home.

FLAG BEARERS... Taking part in the ceremonies of the Brownie and Girl Scout Troop investments in Harbor City last week were Vicki Brown, Sharon Cheek, Lucy Magee, Evelyn Tregarthen, and Sunnie Eldred. Barbara Oulmette led the salute to the flag.

Brownies, Girl Scouts in Joint Investment Program

Brownie Troop No. 315 and Girl Scout Troop No. 643, sponsored by the Harbor City Elementary School P.T.A. held a joint investment program in the school auditorium, which was decorated in the Christmas motif for the occasion.

Flag bearers for the group were Vicki Brown, Sharon Cheek, Lucy Magee, Evelyn Tregarthen, and Sunnie Eldred. The flag salute was led by Barbara Oulmette.

The entire Brownie and Girl Scout group sang several songs: "America the Beautiful," "Girl Scouts Together," "Four Leaf Clover" and "Brownie Smile Song." Accompanist was Nita Bourland.

The new Girl Scouts were escorted to the stage individually and presented their pins. Those were Sharon Brown, Judith Scott, Sandra Gregory, Linda Shore, Frances Millette, Carol Lewis and Sandra Foster.

The Brownies then put on their stunt. Each new member would knock on the door and be escorted in to a round mirror, encircled with red berries, for their part of the Investment Program. New Brownies are Donna Willoughby, Setsuko Kimura, Karen Eggers, Libby Cook, Rea Lu Groover, M-

Gymnasium License Denied by Council

A request by Mr. and Mrs. Trahan for a license to operate a gymnasium and recreation center at 1953 1/2 W. Carson St. was denied by the City Council Tuesday evening on the recommendation of Chief of Police John Strohn.

The Trahans' request for a license stated that they planned to install body-building equipment, ping-pong tables and other health and recreation items.
