HUMANE SOCIETY AGENT NIPPED IN PUP CHASE

Drivers of South Bay Humane Society trucks figure they will get snapped at now and then while making their rounds of the area picking up stray dogs.

Robert Carrao was hardly looking for the nip he received last Saturday, however.

Called by a housewife to pick up a stray puppy, Carrao slid his truck gently into the curb at the address given, hauled out the net and went after the pup.

A four-year-old neighborhood lad appeared alongside Carrao just after he had the pup under control and asked to see the captured mongrel.

That's when the driver got bit—and he's got teeth marks to prove it.

Carrao hung on to the puppy and took him to the shelter, but he swears he was tempted to turn the pup loose and bring the youngster in—after the boy bit him.

Postmaster Reminds Residents Of Special Christmas Offices

Residents of the area were reminded yesterday by Postmaster Clara A. Conner of the special mailing stations set up for Christmas.

In addition to the main post office and the regular stations, five temporary stations have been set up to receive parcels throughout December, Mrs. Conner said.

The offices are:

You should know about FIBRE "E":

FIBRE "E" is one of the many miracle fibres that have come from the DU PONT laboratories in recent years. Fibre "E" is superior to other materials used in rugs of this kind because it wears longer, does not shrink and wrinkle, cleans easily and holds its color better.
