

El Eco Editors Seek Pictures for Annual

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
Tomorrow is the last day for El Eco picture snapping. If you haven't paid your second payment on your El Eco, you better hurry. Gauchos, why not turn in some snapshots of your "gang" in to the El Eco staff to put in the snapshot pages of the annual?

Virginia Buchanan was re-elected to the office of president of the Senior Scholarship Society last week. Other new officers are: Ruth Armes, vice-president; Carole Yuniba, secretary; Pat Gilbert, treasurer, and Julia Delgado, historian.

New Treatment For Arthritis And Muscle Pain

TORRANCE — If you have been suffering for years from arthritis and muscle pain, do not despair. Dr. Larson's new application of the latest in scientific therapy is promising new hope for relief of the crippling, torturing of arthritis and rheumatic conditions. You are invited to come in for a complete examination to discover the true cause of your condition. Price for this examination is only $3.00. Phone Torrance 2130 before coming to offices of Dr. R. A. Larson, D. C., Ph. C., 1110 Sartori Avenue, Torrance (three doors north of Torrance Blvd.). —Adv.

All the girls at the GAA induction. Party last Monday agreed that it was a scream! The new members and new let-forgirls played a handicap baseball game. They used brooms for bats and a speedball for a baseball. Refreshments of hot dogs, Cokes, and cupcakes were had by everyone. The prize for the finest cupcakes went to Dorothy Searles. Just kidding, Dottie!

The Junior GAA party, which was scheduled for last Thursday, was postponed to last Tuesday. The party was held in the girls gym after school with the gym staff as honored guests.

According to members of the Guilders Club, the Guilders Backward Dance held last Friday night from 8 to 11 was a huge success. There was a big turnout, Phil Nichols and his Mellow Men were really hopping.

Students of Miss Stricker's home-making classes, along with students from Banning went to pling, torture of arthritis and rheumatic conditions. You are invited to come in for a complete examination to discover the true cause of your condition. Price for this examination is only $3.00. Phone Torrance 2130 before coming to offices of Dr. R. A. Larson, D. C., Ph. C., 1110 Sartori Avenue, Torrance (three doors north of Torrance Blvd.). —Adv.

All the girls agreed that it was a really fine trip. They were served lunch and saw an educational homemaking movie.

Friday morning a bunch of girls from the Western Avenue Baptist Church drove in private cars to the California Baptist College. Seen eating a delicious ham lunch were: Dorothy Searles, Anett and Marie Grafe, Pat Theiss, Gloria Johnson, and Billie Jean Gigax. Better ask the girls what happened! They were gone all day. Lucky guys.

The senior high girls' assembly in the auditorium will be today during fifth period. The boys will go out to the field during this time.

Frederick V. Bowers, famed composer and pianist, came to NHS last week during an assembly.

Attention Latin Club members—the deadline for club pins is March 13. Club members are asked to pay treasurer, Joan payment on the pins before this date.

Tickets are being sold for the Philharmonic Concert, conducted by Alfred Wallenstein at the Philharmonic Auditorium on March 28, April 3, and April 8. If you are interested, you may purchase tickets from any of the music teachers. Next week will be an exciting week for the girls as it will be Girls Week!

Lancaster will be the scene of the Future Homemakers of America Clubs Convention, on April 11, reports Home Economics Club president, Rosalind Siliano. All members are eligible to go.
