

SEASIDE Y-TEENS HOLD ST. PATRICK'S DANCE

Bright green streamers cascaded from a huge green shamrock in the center of the Torrance Y clubroom, and a top hat was spotlighted on the huge picture window at the far end of the room when Seaside Y-teens and their guests held a St. Patrick's Dance Friday evening.

In charge of decorations for the affair were Betty Morris, Patty Gunther, Sherrill Larkins, and Larren Ludwidge.

Tickets for the event were handled by Alice Shackelford and Patti Smith. Music was furnished by Mrs. John Roccaforte as well as by recordings provided by clubmembers.

Greeting the guests at the door were Judy Bristol and Lally Hanover.

Those enjoying the evening were the following:

Four Generations Attend Shower for Miss Peterson

Four generations were represented at a recent shower honoring Miss Phyllis Peterson, bride-to-be of Charles Curtis, son of Mrs. Anna May Kerr of Compton.

Participating in the festivities at the 2517 El Dorado home of Mrs. Mariene Schooley were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Charles Peterson; her grandmother, Mrs. Carl Creighton; and her great-grandmother, Mrs. Eva Harper.

A large blue wedding ring with spring flowers at the side set the bridal theme in table decor. A three-tiered, decorated cake echoed the yellow and white tones used in other table appointments.

Traditional shower games highlighted the entertainment, with prizes for top scores going to Mesdames Elvin Kerr, H. S. Kerr, Carl Collins, and Ivan Coleman.

Other attending were Mesdames Jim Fluhrer, Martha Riggie, Joanne Schwartz, Bobby Myers, Ross Connor, Jessie Russell, George Schwenk, and Homer Schooley; and Miss Sally Collins.

The bride-to-be, a Torrance High School graduate, makes her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, at 2050 Hawthorne Blvd. Her fiancé is a graduate of Compton High School, and Compton Junior College.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Dr. Purification de la Paz, of the Manila Health Center, P. I., also was a special guest for the evening. The widow of a congressman, she is now a candidate for the Philippine Congress.

Other program highlights included vocal solos by Mari Camlas, soprano, and folk dances by Yvonne and Ricardo Orosin. Mae Wunder accompanied the soloists.

Arrangements for the entertainment were made by Dr. Primitive Demandante of Wilmington and Mesdames Myrtle Klages and Marie Katich.

Next big event on the Soroptimist slate is a breakfast on Sunday, April 12, with Mrs. Cecyle Lusby in charge. Proceeds will be used for the YWCA building fund.

E. M. Johnstons Entertain

Friends from three surrounding cities joined Mr. and Mrs. E. Merle Johnston at their 1803 Beech Ave. home Sunday. Those spending the day were Messrs. and Mesdames Scott Ludwig of Sherman Oaks; Luther Pierce of San Dimas; and G. E. Danford of Glendale.

With the nominating committee's suggestions as a guide, Perry PTA members elected new leaders on a unanimous slate at last Thursday's meeting in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Glenn Blake was re-elected president, and will have as her executive board of officers Mesdames A. MacKenzie, vice-president; L. Arensmeyer, recording secretary; M. Garrity, treasurer; A. Kunka, auditor; and E. Schuster, historian.

Mesdames MacKenzie, Kunka, and Garrity also were elected as voting delegates for the First District CCPT convention to be held April 16 in Pasadena. Other Perry PTA delegates to the meet will be Mesdames G. Runsted and W. A. Wright.

Safety in the home, school and community themes the program following the business hour.

Jack White, president of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association, told that more corrective measures relating to safety have been used in North Torrance than in any other section of the city. He also discussed pedestrian and driver courtesy, suggesting that PTA's lend their co-operative efforts to decrease accidents.

In closing, White stressed the importance of thinking, of alertness, of never-ceasing vigilance, and of a co-operative willingness to lend a neighborly hand in creating a better and safer community so that children may grow to full manhood and womanhood.

Robert Ewins, teacher, gave a brief talk on health safety and presented a Walt Disney film about smallpox vaccinations.

Mrs. Bernardin

New Prexy of Narbonne PTA

In the Narbonne High School PTA president's chair for 1953-54 will be Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, who succeeds Mrs. Don Wolf as leader of the association.

Elected to serve as vice-president with her was Mrs. C. C. DeVore, who has led Halldale PTA as president during the past year. Other new officers are Mesdames O. C. Grubb, secretary; C. L. Wilson, treasurer; and Floyd French, historian.

The naming of new officers preceded a fashion show held Tuesday of last week at the high school Little Theater.

City Wives, Moms to Get April Holiday

Young married women of Torrance will have a "Homemakers' Holiday" next Wednesday, Apr. 1, when the YWCA initiates a recreation program for wives and mothers.

"The smart mother takes time for recreation and relaxation," Mrs. Otis Blackstone, "y" public relations director, said, "and by going to the 'Y' at 2320 W. Carson St. Wednesday at 2 p.m., she can help decide on possible activities for future 'Homemakers' Holidays."

Some of the suggested possibilities are crafts, sports, charm courses, and trips to points of interest, Mrs. Blackstone said. The group will play volleyball following Wednesday's meeting.

Arrangements for the session were made by Mesdames Floyd Miller, J. A. Gregerson, and A. C. Bordeaux. Additional information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Joseph Lukes, Torrance branch director, at 1534.

Parent Class To Discuss Problems of Adolescent

"Emotional Growth of the Adolescent" will be the topic at tonight's parent education class meeting, to be held from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock in the Little Theater at Narbonne High School.

Mrs. Jung Worth, lecturer, will supplement her talk with two films.

A good attendance is needed to insure continuation of the class, which is sponsored by Narbonne PTA. Mrs. Frank Allen, parent education chairman, said.
