

200 Graduates At El Camino

June graduates at El Camino College, according to a tentative graduation list released this week by the Student Personnel office, will number over 200, one third of them women.

Assistant Director of Student Personnel, W. Holmes Smith, said that some 203 students had filed notification of intent to graduate, of which 66 were women and 137 were men.

Of those who have already qualified for graduation, Smith said, 26 completed their requirements in January of this year. One of those marching in the June graduation procession completed his work in the summer session of last year and two others will complete their work this coming summer session.

Round the Riviera Mother of Two Dies In Head-on Crash

By MARY and JACK WEBB
Frontier 5-9551

Our deepest sympathies and condolences to John D. Flynn Jr. and his family, of 355 Calle de Andalucia. Less than two weeks after the Flyns bought their Riviera home and moved in, Mrs. Joanne T. Flynn and her unborn baby were fatally injured when the car in which she and her husband were riding with another couple was smashed head-on by another auto at the corner of Elena and Catalina, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Flynn died at 8:45 a.m. last Sunday at Harbor General Hospital five hours after the crash.

Mrs. Flynn was the mother of two small children, John and Patsy, and was awaiting the birth of a third this coming summer.

At the Cub Pack meeting held April 23 at El Retiro Park, Pack 877, Dens 1, 2, 3 and 4, and Pack 718 received a long overdue award from the Freedom Foundation, Inc., Valley Forge, Pa. Jack Satterlee, Cubmaster of 718, presented the award which was in the shape of a silver coin, reading: "Boy Scouts of America Honor Recommendation Get-Out-The-Vote Campaign for Work on Liberties Team, 1952." The reverse side read: "Freedom Foundations, Inc., Valley Forge, Pa. The general meeting theme of the Cubs this time was 'Hawaii Night' and all dens participated in it through dances, games and skits. Refreshments were served by mothers of the Cubs.

Her first daughter was born to the Bruce Mapes, 129 Vista del Parque, last March 26. The newcomer has been named Carol Ann and she arrived into this world weighing a healthy 7 lbs., 7 oz. For those who like to keep statistics, Carol Ann has grey eyes and dark brown hair which the Mapes say looks like it will turn red. Carol Ann joins her two big brothers, Bruce, 9 and Alva, 8.

At the spring luncheon and style show of the Woman's Society of the First Methodist Church, Redondo Beach, held Apr. 30 at the church, Mrs. John Kinsey, 440 Calle Mayor, served as one of the models while Mrs. Jack Satterlee, 255 Calle de Andalucia, sang in the chorus accompanying the show. Mrs. Harley Cunningham of Calle de Arboles was accompanist.

NEW NEIGHBOR DEPT: Meet Mr. and Mrs. Hector Schetne of 354 Camino de las Colinas, new Riverans who moved here last Feb. 21 from Manhattan Beach. Mr. Schetne is an electronics engineer at Hughes.

Mrs. O. C. Landstrom, 305 Calle de Andalucia, played hostess at a small coffee get-together in Mrs. Schetne's honor last week. Guests included Mesdames Matt Brunning, Will Zens, Thorsten Burman and Jack Wahl.

A baby shower, given in honor of Mrs. Jim Greer of 142 Via Alameda, was held Monday, April 27 at the home of Mrs.

Jack Walker, 105 Paseo de Granada. Feature of the shower was the covered dish luncheon served by Mrs. Walker. Guests included Reba Noble, Connie Thune, Darlene Hansen, Martha Wootin, Ann Lane, Christine Moore, Helen Lovett, Margaret Tuggle and Teresa Hiatt, Jeanette Bergan, Lois Howsley, Nan Reed and the honored guest.

Mrs. Walker reported many lovely things received by the honored guest for the coming baby: gowns, blankets, booties, pantsies, a doll nursery, 1 a.m.p. sweater and many other items that the baby will be sure to appreciate.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Zens, 167 Via Los Miradores, are still looking for the culprit who fired a bullet through their big six by eight-foot glass window on Friday night, April 24. The Zens had shooed three of their five little Zens off to the bedrooms, leaving their two older girls, Joanne 6, and Patty 5, to put away records. Mrs. Zens heard a crash and charged it off to a breaking of records by her two daughters, didn't even go into the living room to see. After getting all the children tucked in, she returned to the living room and was confronted with the sight of her picture window ruined by a bullet hole. Will called the police, but to date no success has been reported in either the finding of the bullet or the finding of the culprit.

Mrs. Carlton Paul, 188 Via Los Miradores, together with her father and mother from Altadena, just returned from a trip to Scottsdale near Phoenix, Ariz., where the threesome went for a short vacation and rest. Mr. Paul was in New York on business during their trip time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schultz and their three children are the new owners of the home at 224 Calle de Andalucia. They are from El Monte and plan to move into Riviera this coming Saturday.

Former owners were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Byrd and their son Butch, who are now living at 968 Eucalyptus Dr. in El Segundo while they look around for their future new home.

At the general meeting of the Riviera PTA last Monday night, Mrs. Raymond Hole, retiring president, was presented with a covered casserole dish complete with a dishwasher set. It was presented to her by the Riviera PTA Board in appreciation for her services and work during this past school year.
