Well, we got three of our babies here in the tract in the last couple of weeks. The first one was Al Greenberg's, the Knolls' druggist. His wife Betsy made him very happy with their first baby, a girl, Kathy Helene. She was born in the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital in Los Angeles, which happens to be the same one where her mother was born. Kathy Helene weighed in at 7 lbs. 7 oz. Her proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Erman of Los Angeles.

The next baby is Dick Graham's 23110 Huber Ave. His wife Alberta had a nice big girl, too. LeAnn Renee was born at Torrance Memorial Hospital, on Monday, Dec. 7, and she weighed 7 lbs. 8 1/2 oz.

The third baby, and another girl, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jay Nelson, 2083 Reynosa Dr. at Torrance Memorial Hospital. Her name is Karen Lynn, and she weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz. Her birthday is Dec. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brown of 2059 Reynosa Dr. have already received their company for the holidays. Larry's mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Dean H. Brown, from Missoula, Mont. They arrived Thursday night after just managing to beat a snowstorm. They are planning to stay for three months, and get away from all that cold, cold weather.

We would like to extend our sympathy to Chester Jesmer of 1835 Santa Fe, who lost his beloved wife, Ruth, a week ago, and also to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bray, of Harbor Hills.

We also extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Loy, 2216 Middlebrook Rd., whose father died on Dec. 11.

The Rachel Circle of the Methodist Church gave their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Phyllis Morgan, 23216 Falena, last week. Phyllis and Jackie Shellhart were the co-hostesses of fun playing games and exchanging gifts, including several gifts. Milly Hines, of 23014 Huber Ave., became a new member of their Circle the same night.

The Cub Scouts of Pack 733-C, many of whom are little Kettlerite boys, all had a wonderful time at the Rams and Baltimore Colts football game, at the Los Angeles Coliseum, a week ago Saturday. Twenty boys and seven adults all had a big day. The boys are now keeping busy working on Christmas presents for their parents.

Lots and Jack Phillips, 2019 Reynosa Dr., were happy to welcome Jack's mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Phillips from Helena, Mont., for the holidays, last Saturday night. They also seem to think Montana gets a little too cold around this time of the year.

Please call and let me know when you have your guests for the holidays.
