Hope Evangelical Church Slates Christmas Program

The Sunday School of Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church will offer a special Christmas program Sunday evening under the direction of Earl Burkey, Sunday School superintendent.

The program will feature special Christmas music, carols and appropriate recitations. A special feature of the program will be the showing of a colored sound motion picture entitled, "The Saviour is Born."

This picture depicts the prophecy of the Prophet Micah, the decrees of Caesar Augustus ordering the taxation of all his subjects, the journey of Joseph and Mary to Bethlehem, the coming of the shepherds from the hillsides, and the adoration of the Magi or wise men from the East. All members of the church and Sunday school will be given an award in keeping with the Christmas season.

At the morning worship, the pastor, Rev. Homer H. Miller, will bring a special Christmas message entitled, "The Conqueror of the World," based upon

Baptists Slate Old-Fashioned Xmas Program

An old-fashioned Christmas program will be given by the Sunday School departments of the South Bay Baptist Church next Sunday evening, Sept. 20, at 7:30 o'clock, the Rev. George F. Cain, pastor, announced this week.

The program, under the direction of Sunday School Superintendent Gerald W. Stevenson, will take the place of the regular evening worship. Rev. Cain said, Services currently are being held in the Recreation Building at El Retiro Park.

The 11 o'clock morning service will feature "No Room for Jesus" as the pastor's message and special Christmas music by the choir. Junior Church and child care are maintained during this time.

Sunday School convenes at 9:45 o'clock, using the facilities of the South Bay Community Christian School, 5922 Pacific Coast Hwy.

Cantata Slated For Walteria Church Sunday

On Christmas, Sunday evening at 7:30 Dec. 20, the choir of the Community Methodist Church in Walteria will bring the message of Christ's birth in song, with a cantata entitled "Babe of Bethlehem" by Bernard Hamblen, directed by Mrs. William M. Mitchell. There will be a silver offering.

The following Wednesday, Dec. 23, at 7:30 p.m. the Christ story will be told in pantomime with the various classes of the church school singing the Christmas carols. Santa Claus is expected to pay a visit after the program.

Shortly after the New Year, volunteer help will begin construction of the new social hall adjacent to the church sanctuary. Rev. Gene M. Gehres announced the official board elected. Frank Hunter, chairman of the finance commission.

Final Services Held for Frank Steinhilber, 61

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning for Frank H. Steinhilber, 61, pioneer resident of Torrance who died at his home Friday evening.
