EDITH MARRIOTT NAMED REBEKAH NOBLE GRAND

Edith Marriott, elected Noble Grand for 1954 at last week's Wednesday meeting of the Rebekah Lodge will assume her official duties Wednesday, Dec. 23, presiding over a festive Christmas gathering at the California Hall in Lomita.

A potluck supper will start off the fun at 6:30 o'clock, and a short business session will follow. A gala party, with an exchange of gifts for all and treats for the children will climax the evening.

Trio members are invited to bring their families to the affair, and have extended special invitation to the Odd Fellows Club and the Theta Rho Girls Club.

Assisting Mrs. Marriott on the planning committee are other new officers: Ruth Jacobs, vice grand; Bertha Fern, recording secretary; Dorothy Rogers, financial secretary; Ada Andersen, treasurer; and Emma Applin, trustee for 18 months.

Three new members were welcomed into the club at the Dec. 9 meeting. Two, Mrs. Irlu Bertholomew and Mrs. Betty Hall, transferred from another lodge while Mrs. Stelma Norris was initiated.

Following the meeting, the Past Noble Grands Club served sandwiches, cake, and coffee.

WCS Gives Presents to Girls' Home

Children at the Francis De. Pavy home for girls will get Christmas gifts today, thanks to the Women's Society of Christian Service, Methodist Church.

The 69 presents, brought by the Methodist women to the WCS general meeting last Thursday, will be distributed by Mrs. Lois Balsley, supply chairman.

Collection of the packages carried out Thursday's meeting theme, "Gracious Gifts Are Given." A pageant, narrated by Mrs. John Taylor, with various members of the group portraying various gifts, also contributed to the theme.

Mrs. Roy Gore portrayed the Christmas tree; Mrs. Robert Schroeder, the holly berry; Mrs. W. W. Buchanan, the Christmas card; Mrs. D. Robinson, crosses; Mrs. M. Schwab, arts; Mrs. Richard Brandin, music; Mrs. D. Kirks, poetry; and Mrs. P. H. Slygh, mother and children.

TOMORROW Wives To Get Decor Hints

Hints on home decorations for the Christmas holidays will be demonstrated tomorrow when the Y-Wives meet at 9:30 a.m. at the YWCA. Mrs. John Parks, publicity chairman, announced this week.

Mrs. Victor Benstead, president of Torrance Terrace Garden Club, will demonstrate ideas for flower arrangements for Christmas tables, mantels, front doors and throughout the house. She also will show unusual gift wrappings, Mrs. Parks said.

Mrs. Floyd Miller, president of the Y-Wives, is inviting all women of the community to share in this special Christmas program, the press chairman continued. A children's party, featuring games, refreshments, and a gift exchange will follow.

Y-Wives are now voting for new officers by mail, and the leaders will be installed at the first meeting of the new year, scheduled for Jan. 8.

PAPA REPORTS Incubator Tot Gaining Now

Still in an incubator at Torrance Memorial Hospital hovering around the two-pound weight level is the tiny daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Spicer Sr., former Torrance residents, who now make their home in Redondo Beach.

The little bit of femininity, who is only 13 inches long, weighed 2 lbs. 4 1/2 oz. when she was born Dec. 5 at 5:30 p.m. Since her arrival, she lost weight until she barely tipped the scales at 1 1/2 lbs. last week, but is gaining this week, the father, who is employed at North American Aviation, reported.

The incubator tot, named Iris Arlean, has one brother, Ira D. Jr. Her grandparents are Homo Waldron of Mulliken, Mich., and Zella Cunningham of Redondo Beach.
