Once Beaten ECC In Sam Barry Tourney

By FRED CLAIRE
Warwhoop Sports Editor

Supporting a 9-1 mark, El Camino Junior College was to do battle with Muir at 1 p.m. yesterday in the opening round of the Sam Barry Tournament, held at Glendale College.

The Warriors were handed their first taste of defeat last Saturday night as they fell, 59-55, at the hands of San Mateo in their northern trip final.

The initial El Camino loss of the season found Coach Tom Bailey unable to field a steady five for the first time thus far. Ahead by 16 points at half-time, 45-29, the local crew hit for only 10 points in the final two frames.

They did not make a foul shot in three tries in the second half and hit on only five of 26 field goal attempts.

The Warriors' outstanding threat of the night was Guard Ron Heusser with 15 markers. Tom Strawn hit for 12 and Al Herring for nine.

Dick Blanchard led the San Mateo attack with 21 points. El Camino (55) San Mateo JC Herring (9) F (1) Ruffoni Baron (13) F (13) Bogle Strawn (12) C (17) Allain Nethercott (6) G (21) Blanchard Heusser (15) G (8) Taylor (4) Gilcrest

Powell All-CIF?

Rumors Run Rife

Rumors that Ed Powell, Torrance High School's sterling All-Bay League tackle, would be named to the All-CIF team when it is announced by the Helms Athletic Foundation tomorrow, ran rife in the city today.

Official confirmation of the rumors must wait until Helms Foundation releases the official All-CIF team to newspapers tomorrow afternoon. Powell, Torrance's only unanimous choice on the All-Bay League team, was a tower of strength all year for the Tartars, as was Full-back Don Kasten, another possible All-CIF'er. Torrance has never before placed a man on the All-CIF first team.

WOMEN VOTERS

Norway was the first European country to grant suffrage to women, first permitting local voting in 1901, and extending it to national voting in 1907.

Here's a big help to keeping that New Year's budget straight; a personal checking account at Torrance National Bank. Come in and open your account this week. Happy New Year everyone.
