

Sacramento Report

Assemblyman, 46th District

Guide Dogs for the Blind
A new law, known as Chapter 1729 amending the Business and Professions Code, governs guide dogs for the blind.

Divorce Laws
Cobina Wright, who has a column entitled "Society as It is" in the Hearst Newspapers, recently said:

Rapid Transit
I am now on two sub-committees studying rapid transit. One is a subcommittee of the Assembly Committee on Transportation and Commerce and the other is a subcommittee of the Public Utilities Committee.

Beware of Phony Census
A lady in Westchester recently wrote me a very indignant letter about some callers she had had lately.

Tardy Ambulances
In some sections of Los Angeles, a private ambulance company has the monopoly and will not answer calls unless payment is guaranteed in advance.

Railroad Grade Crossings
I am a member of the Assembly Committee on Public Utilities, and a member of an interim sub-committee on railroad grade crossings.

For example, if a man calls upon you and says that he is an F.B.I. agent, ask him for his credentials, and then telephone the F.B.I. office in Los Angeles and ask them if an agent of that name and description has been sent to call on you.

Legislation does not convene again until March 1, 1954. I shall be in Inglewood until then except for short trips to attend interim committee meetings in other cities.

How to Influence Legislation?
The "History of Firearms in America," "Fingerprint Identification," "How the Jet Aircraft Powerplant Operates," "S.M.A.I. Boat Harbors for the West Coast," "Chinese Secret Society," and "How the Loan Sharks Get 40% Interest."

Bishop's Group To Present Life Of Christ Play

"Family Portrait," the story of the family of Christ, will be presented by the Bishop's Company, Southland church drama group, in the Torrance Civic Auditorium Jan. 10, sponsored by the First Methodist Church.

The play has been adapted from the New York version by Broadway writer-director Robin Swicord and features a professional cast.

In the leading role of Mary, mother of Jesus, will be motion picture and television actress Eve McVeigh, who is to appear in the lead Skelton show this week, the Rev. Taylor announced.

Also in the cast are Elsie Baker, who appeared on the show; Lee Mills, who played in "The Horn. Blows by Tom Holland, who will appear in the "Omibus" TV show next week; Chandler McClure, of "Suspense"; Joyce Nichols, Bill Dodge, Helen Noyes and Maurine Hill, according to the Rev. Taylor.

Although the character of Jesus does not appear in the play, his life becomes dramatically clear as seen through the eyes of his family which shares, but never understands the pattern of his life.

The Bishop's Company, which was formed to bring serious and purposeful drama into the church, has been playing continuously since last January and is booked solidly into next year, the pastor announced.

Evangelist To Speak at El Nido Baptist Church

Dr. Harry Von Bruch, evangelist and "Youth For Christ" speaker, will appear nightly at the First Baptist Church of El Nido, 4558 W. 182nd St., Jan. 3 through 10, it was announced recently.

At 7:30 each evening, Von Bruch will show color pictures of his travels.

FRANKING PRIVILEGE
The franking privilege, right of sending mail free of charge, was first granted by the United States government to all American soldiers during the Revolutionary War.
