OFF TO CHICAGO . . . Jimmy Vaughan, well-known local bowler who lives at 1219 Teri Ave., left Wednesday night for Chicago where he will roll the big black ball with 14 other Californians in the National Match Game Championships. Jimmy, brother of Ace Vaughan of National Electric, has lived in Torrance for six years. Tomorrow, he will be one of 150 men bowlers who will enter a "Parade of Stars Sweepstakes" in Chicago, and on Saturday the eight-day meet will begin.

ROD and GUN Chatter

Dandy weather for ducks the last few days, too bad the season ended last Sunday. As it was, it rounded out to a rather poor finish for local huntsmen—who bagged a few, but not near their limits.

Surf fishing is reported pretty strong up and down the coast and the deep sea boats still manage to load up on bottom and rock fish, keeping the anglers happy.

The Smiths—Helen, Ben, Tim and Claudia—journeyed down Mexico way along the Rio Hardy over New Year's to fish and hunt—naturally! Lots of dove, a few geese and one catfish. The "old man" will have to go some if he intends to stay on a competing level with his son. Young Smith had no trouble outshooting him. In fact, not wanting him to feel too much like a "has been," he probably missed a few shots on purpose. Tim has such a kind heart, ya' know!

Bag Ducks
Lake Irvine yielded a few ducks to Fred Biogar, Bud and Clyde Anderson and Paul Smith near the close of the season. Seven in all, which isn't bad for that particular spot.

Tulelake, which was considered the "hot spot" throughout the season, even fell short at the end. Walt and Lois Gillard managed to bag a few "quackers" from there, but certainly not what was anticipated. The storms have been pretty rough up that way, so the flights have moved elsewhere.

Girls Fish
Braving the early morning cold, Helen and Marcella Smith, Rev. Long and Key Shelton fished off a Naval jetty at Seal Beach. The girls landed cabezons, rock bass and butter-mouth perch for breakfast. What a life!

The pounding surf along Seal Beach proved a "hot spot" to Carl, Hansi and Ray Hawkins who landed 17 perch from there one morning last week, in the one to two-and-a-half pound class.
