

Simplified Gift Tax Forms Available to Individuals

Robert C. Kirkwood, State Controller, Monday announced the distribution of new, simplified Gift Tax Instructions and Forms. The new instructions and forms were drawn to make it easier for the laymen to understand the law and to prepare his own return. California's Gift Tax Law which became effective June 21, 1939, requires any individual resident of California to file a return if he made a gift to any one donee of property exceeding $4,000 in value or, regardless of value, made a gift of a future interest. The Gift Tax Return must be filed with the State Controller at Sacramento on or before the 15th day of April following the close of the calendar year in which the gift was made.

A reunion of eight alumnae from Dakota Wesleyan University in Mitchell, S. D., met with their families at the Tussings, 17104 Yukon Ave., for New Year's dinner.

The Tussings and the Milton Darrows are from North Torrance while the other two couples were from Sacramento.

The Cub Mothers Club of Pack 761-C met at the home of Eleanor Black, 17224 Atkinson Ave. Two new chairmen were appointed: Mrs. Wendell Towell, refreshment chairman; and Mrs. J. Herman Cortez, press chairman.

Den Six won the half-gallon of ice cream for having more mothers present at the meeting.

The Boy Scout Mothers Club will meet Monday at the home of Mrs. William Verburg, 2093 W. 174th St.

The club recently sent flowers to Ruth Snell, president, who is at Queen of Angels Hospital in Los Angeles until Saturday.

Mrs. Ray Culp, 17515 Cerise Ave., was admitted to Hawthorne Hospital for surgery Monday morning.

The Woodcraft Ranger Girls, numbering 21, are planning a Snow Party under the guidance of their leader, Mary Mobra, and their assistant leader, Mrs. Jerry Hall.

The counselor for the girls is Young Eleanor Bazilius. The girls had open house for their parents at McMaster Hall for the Christmas holidays and presented Field Ranger Jack Russell and slides on the woodcraft group.

The ninth anniversary of the Wendell Towells, 17512 Cerise Ave., was celebrated at Rand's Round Up on Figueroa Ave. Anniversary gift was a 400-day clock made in Schatz, Germany.

Pamela and Joey Fletcher welcomed a new sister, Deborah, home at 17511 Cerise Ave., this week.

Secret pals were revealed at an unmasking party of the Alpha Society held at the home of Helen Woods, 17104 Crenshaw Blvd.

The tea table was centered by two dolls with masks in their hands. Streamers went out to each plate at the end of which was a mask for each guest.

Gifts were exchanged by Helen Woods, Audrey Richter, Ann Collins, Ruth Brooks, Myrtle Dyer, Juanita Alford, Emy White, Alice McKenzie, Betty Johnson, Phyllis Considine, and Marion Tussing.

The Alpha Society and new members will draw new secret pals at the February meeting.

Thelma O'Dell and daughter, Sharon, 12704 Crenshaw Blvd. spent a few days in San Diego for the holidays.

Because of the fire at home, Dorothy Stockle's shower for Bea Van DeVort was hastily changed to the home of Mrs. J. R. Farriola, 2620 W. 176th St.

The house was decorated with twin storks, a play pen with twin dolls, and the presents were all in twos.

Arthur Moss, 17508 Ermanita Ave., a heavy smoker for thirty-eight years, reformed and gained nine pounds. He is entering Gardens Hospital for surgery this week.

Later in the month Mr. and Mrs. Moss will fly to China to convalesce.
