

Wednesday Event Public Invited to Attend Trio Rebekah Installation

An open invitation to the public to attend installation rites seating officers for the coming year was extended this week by Trio Rebekah Lodge No. 240.

The ceremonies will be held next Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock, at the California Hall in Lomita, with District Deputy President Lucille Mentz and her staff officiating.

During the evening, Edith Marriott will take office as noble grand, while Ruth Jacobs will take over the duties of vice grand. Other elective officers to be installed are Irma Powers, junior past noble grand; Bertha Fern, recording secretary; Dor-

Retta Nelson, good fellowship chairman; Ruth Jacobs, publicity chairman; Margie Russell, degree mistress; Nellie Farquhar, wardrobe mistress; and Winifred Brase, soloist.

A brief business meeting at 7:30 p.m. will precede the rites.

Discipline Problems on Slate At Harbor PTA Meet Tonight

"Problems in Growing Up," carried out by panel discussion entitled "Is Discipline Necessary?" will theme tonight's meeting of Harbor City PTA, to begin at 7:15 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Members of the panel will be Harold Bell, 24-A4 teacher, and Mrs. James Triffon, PTA publicity chairman. Fifth grade room mothers will be hostesses, and child care will be provided.

Executive board members charted plans for the session when they met Wednesday of last week at the school cafeteria with Mrs. Ray Groover, president presiding.

First grade will be on split sessions when the new semester begins, Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, reported, but it is hoped that new classrooms permitting all-day sessions will be available by next September.

Mrs. Creech also reported on the present facelift of the grass and shrubs at school.

Moms to Serve Dinner for Rod 'n' Gun Club

Forming of plans and committees to serve a turkey dinner to about 400 Rod and Gun Club members and friends on Feb. 6 featured the January session of the Job's Daughters' Mothers Club, held at the home of Mrs. Raymond McCue with Mrs. Ralph Allen sharing hostess honors.

Mrs. Pearl Thayne and Leonard Babcock will be general chairmen for the 7 p.m. event, to be held at the Civic Auditorium. Assisting will be the following:

Job's Daughters, decked out in dainty nylon aprons made by the Mothers Club, also will assist in the serving. Mrs. Moffatt, assisted by Mesdames Crabtree, Maloy, Edward Thayne and Wright formed the apron-sewing committee.

The Mothers Club will hold its next meeting at the 1652 W. 215th St. home of Mrs. Wright on Feb. 10.

Mrs. Marian White, B-1 teacher; Harold Bell, 24-A4 teacher, and Mrs. James Triffon, PTA publicity chairman. Fifth grade room mothers will be hostesses, and child care will be provided.

Executive board members charted plans for the session when they met Wednesday of last week at the school cafeteria with Mrs. Ray Groover, president presiding.

Mrs. Creech also reported on the present facelift of the grass and shrubs at school.

OES Initiates This Evening

Three candidates will be initiated tonight when Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, holds its regular meeting at the Masonic Temple, 1321 1/2 Sartori Ave., at 8 o'clock.

Worthy Matron Florence Viellenave and Worthy Patron Vincent Viellenave, assisted by their corps of officers, will preside, while Mrs. Anna Mae Jones will serve as chairman for the social hour to follow.

All members of the chapter and visiting members of the Order are invited to attend.

SELL RUMMAGE TOMORROW

All types of used clothing for men, women, and children will be on the shelves at the First Methodist Church tomorrow when the Women's Society of Christian Service sponsors a rummage sale to begin at 10 a.m.

Mrs. J. A. DeJaiffe is in charge of the ways and means project.
