

Winners Emerge From Recreation Yo Yo Contests.

Only in the mysterious land of yo yo can a youngster walk the dog around the world and cover the falls and win prizes for doing so, as many Torrance youngsters will attest.

The first round of the Recreation Department yo yo contest kicked off Saturday at McMaster and Torrance parks, and from the confusion emerged three award winners.

Another round of these eliminations will be held Saturday at McMaster Park at 10 a.m. and at Torrance City Park at 1 p.m. The Torrance city champ will square off with winners from other South Bay cities in the district championships, to be held at the Gardena Community Center on Feb. 26. The district winner will vie in the State Championships. Bicycles and cash scholarships are given to state winners.

These three have been given the honor of competing with other weekly winners in the City Championships, to be held at a later date, following the weekly eliminations.

THS to Present Pulitzer Prize Winning Comedy

The Pulitzer Prize winning comedy "Arsenic and Old Lace" will be presented at the Torrance High School senior play on the night of Feb. 6 in the school auditorium, it was reported this week.

Student performances will be held on the afternoons of Feb. 4 and 5 and the play will be staged for the public starting at 8 p.m. on Feb. 6.

The hilarious story of the two old ladies who spike their elderly wine with arsenic and serve it to old men, men for two years on Broadway and was made into a motion picture. Both the stage play and the film featured Boris Karloff in the east.

At Torrance High, the senior cast is composed of Joan Leach, Suzie Snyder, Barbara Heger, Norma Quine, Lynn Lorenz, Doralee Chaffin, Ralph Clifford, Bob Hopkins, Richard Knappenberger, Larry Radtke, Joe Lettner, John Pennington, Louis Schmitt, Allen Lamer, John Morrison, Bob Shanklin, and Lee Roy Gold. Director is Florence Longo and producer is Nancy La Duke. Technical director will be Debra McCollum who will be assisted by Betty Eichman.

INCOME LEVEL
Per capita annual income in Torrance is $1721.
