

Narbonne Winter Class to Graduate

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL DA 8-9708

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock the Winter Class of 1954 with its 54 members will assemble in the auditorium for their graduation. Deacon Dan Towler, the Los Angeles Rams' famed grinder, will be the main speaker.

Tuesday morning, the graduating seniors had their Senior Breakfast with members of the Home Economics Club serving. Honors and awards were given. Those lucky kids!

A very inspirational vesper service was held for the Seniors last Sunday. The graduates and their immediate families heard Rev. Vandenberg give the main address and Rev. Rosine give the invocation and benediction.

Ugh! Tomorrow's the day that most students dreaded all semester: report card day! Beginning next Monday, Narbonne is scheduled to go on half-day sessions with senior high in the morning, 7:30 to 11:50, and junior high in the afternoon, 12:30 to 4:30. Athletics will be held in the afternoon session.

Yesterday afternoon, 101 A-9's were graduated from junior high school. Afterwards, a party was given in the gym with all enjoying themselves.

Don Paul, famed captain of the Los Angeles Rams' football team spearheaded the Lettermen's Banquet held last Thursday evening. Bill Stitt, Aramis Dandoy, and Deke Brackett also were featured. Mr. Barnett is quite a cook, so they say. Jerry Moore was named the Athlete of the Year. Frank Zuray was given the football award. Jimmy Williams was announced the most valuable in basketball, and Ray Benefiel was the low-point man in cross-country. The banquet was declared a big success.

Flash! — The Job's Daughters are sponsoring a big semi-formal dance on Saturday, Feb. 13 at the Masonic Temple. Sal Presina and his six-piece orchestra will provide the music. Tickets will be sold for $1.50.

Also the Jobbers are planning an ice cream social tomorrow evening from 7 to 11 o'clock at the Masonic Temple. Donations for a mountain trip in March will be 35 cents.

A wonderful and enjoyable week-end was spent by the Lettermen and a few members of GAA last week. The lucky gals are Diane Schildmeyer, Doree Thompson, Alice Carpenter, Shirley Martin, Shirley Andrade, Maurette Shaw, Vivian Serpa, Lila Ann Roberson, Yvonne Ash, Connie Long, Adrian Rosendal, Laura Tolbert, Dorothy Scarlen, Marge Gillman, Millie Childs, Shirley Endo, Barbara Irvin, Karen Pedersen, Julia Delgado, Carmen Ochoa, Joan (Broad) Warner, Mary Hathaway, Kay Curry, Delores Langerud, Sandra Katila, Joyce Endo, Miss Jayne Herwig, Miss Maxine Schildmeyer, Miss Jean Lancaster, and Miss Louellen Chase.

The women faculty put the mighty (?) Lettergirls to "sleep" in a volleyball game held last week, 2-0. The "professors" snatched the first game, 13-21, then in the second game, 17-21. Oh well, maybe next time, gals!

Joan Armlington, Jean Wetzel, Dennis Hudson, and Rev. Eldon Durham, attended the Youth Banquet held in the Long Beach First Presbyterian Church last Thursday evening. The group reported that it was lovely.
