

Louis Zamperini Devotes Life to Helping Others

Ask anyone who they think is Torrance's most famous athlete and, without pause, they'll probably answer: "Louie Zamperini."

While at Torrance High School, Louie set the interscholastic record for the mile—4:21.2—that was broken just last year. He set it in 1934 and it held for almost 20 years.

Louie still holds the CIF Southern Section High School mile record with his 4:21.2; he also holds the Torrance High School and Bay League records in the event and the Los Angeles City track and field meet record for the mile—4:26.3, which he set in 1935.

Louie went on to fame at USC and became an Olympic Games star. During World War II, his harrowing tale of 47 days of suffering on a life raft while being bombed and strafed by Japanese planes, inspired all who heard it.

Still Inspired

Zamperini is still inspiring people. He has established an all-year camp for wayward boys in the Angeles Forest area and is devoting his life to helping boys get back on the road to security.

Everyone remembers Zamperini for his track and war records, but few know of the work he is doing in his boys' camp. He is to speak before the Santa Monica Lions Club today to tell them of his work and ask for their help.

Other clubs and groups have heard Zamperini's story. They've heard how he has worked unselfishly and untiringly to improve the camp by adding a swimming pool and other facilities. The improvements are deducted from the rent and as a result Louie can keep a boy in camp for only $10 a week, while it takes $16.80 for a county camp to break even.

The boys who go to Louie's place are mostly juvenile hall delinquents and reformatory boys whom the county entrusts to Zamperini because of his great spiritual and moral influence on them.

Each Boy Interviewed

At one time, the camp accommodated 200 boys at a time, but Louie has cut it down to 50 so that he can give personal attention to each boy. He interviews each boy at the camp personally.

The camp property does not belong to Zamperini and there is no formal setup to solicit funds to run it. Zamperini relies on contributions from helpful citizens and on help from another source—the same source that helped him pull through those 47 days on the life raft and the two-and-a-half years in prison camps which followed. It's called Faith.

GASOLINE LOAD

Petroleum companies produced and delivered a record of 136.5 billion gallons of gasoline during 1952 to set an all-time industrial record.
