New 1954 Filter Queen Keeps Clean the Air You Breathe

"There's danger in the air" — in the air you breathe in your own home.

This was pointed out in a recent United States Public Health Service bulletin stating that seemingly harmless household dust particles may harbor germs of respiratory and other dreaded diseases.

Health authorities point out that one-fifth of the population is susceptible to some type of allergy. Here again, the bulletin says, common allergies like hay fever are traceable in many cases to household dust.

A new type of home cleaning system that removes disease-laden dust at its source — in floor coverings, drapes and other household furnishings — has been announced by Health-Mor Inc., manufacturers of the Filter Queen home sanitation system. Health-Mor says its 1954 Filter Queen helps purify dust-laden air at the rate of 40 cubic feet a minute.

Heart of the F.Q. cleaning action is in the scientifically developed filter cone, composed of a long-fibered mat of pure cellulose, specially treated for strength and efficiency. When used in the Filter Queen, this cone separates dirt from air — returning only the purified air back into the room.

The Filter Queen also does away with dust mops, dust rags, brooms and vacuum cleaners. Other outstanding features of the system are a medication chamber that vaporizes all types of medicants used in treating common illnesses, lightweight maneuverability (weighs only 14½ pounds), a demoting attachment and a life-time service guarantee.

A post card request to Filter Queen, P.O. Box 234, Lomita, Calif., or call Davenport 6-8891 will arrange a home demonstration at no charge or obligation.

Cub Scouts Honor Parents With Party

By ADALINE CORTEZ
MENLO 4-6876

Peeking out from under the hills of blue and gold streamers, blue and gold tempera colors, blue and gold flowers, and marking finis to Scout Week and Salud to PTA Founders Day, I managed to note that the youth of North Torrance made most of the news this week.

The Cubs of Den Six, Pack 761, C, honored their parents and Cubmaster John Miller, at a Blue and Gold dinner held at my home on Wednesday night. The living-dining area was decorated in blue and gold. "Hi Cubs" in large blue letters against a wall of white drapery, served as a background for the table set in yellow cloth with lace place mats edged in blue. Tall blue tapers flanked an arrangement of yellow calla lilies in a blue vase. Small yellow cakes with naries inscribed in blue frosting served as place cards.

On the buffet stood an Indian tunic with Cub Scouts sitting around a ceremonial fire. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Orms and Jan; Mr. and Mrs. O. Faris and Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Terry and Glenn; Mrs. Crain with sons Bill and Clifford; John Miller; Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Towell and Michael; Mr. and Mrs. J. Hernan Cortez and Eric.

Eating until their money was gone, and prowling through the countless exhibits, the Dizzy Bluebird group whose leader is Marge Bertrand and Co-leader Willa Lee Harris, visited the Los Angeles County Museum on Lincoln's Birthday.

The happy girls were Sheryll and Florine Weiner, Mary Jan Bates, Sandra Peterson, Donna Bertrand, Carlee Harris, Sandra Fagnano, and Nancy Schindele. Mrs. Roy Peterson also accompanied the girls on their sojourn.

Sandra Constance, 17002 Glenburn Ave., who has emerged as somewhat of a beauty queen as entered a $10,000 contest. I'm told she has appeared on TV twice in one week.

Mrs. Nordessa McCann, 17114 Glenburn Ave., is happy to be home after undergoing major surgery.

Mary, 9, and Mike Deacy, 11, 17221 Glenburn Ave., young local artists were in a musical in Banning Park and on a radio show this week.

Red and white nut cups, Valentine cookies, and punch made by them carried out the theme of the Valentine party and investment ceremony of Brownie Troop 888.

Mothers were invited and ten girls were invested. The party was held in the home of Leader, Mrs. A. B. Cowie, 4418 West 182nd St.

Robin Harris, who is indeed, a little sweetheart, celebrated her birthday on Valentine's Day. Sister Carlee and brother Gregory, were in charge of decorations and games. There was a Valentine box and individual heart cakes with the names of each child written on the top.

Arlene Pash, 17231 Glenburn Ave., has returned home from a years stay with her grandparents in Colorado.

Cheryl Pash celebrated her third birthday with six boys and six girls at a party.

"Killing two birds with one stone" Mark and Greg Hatch, 2704 176th St., celebrated February birthdays the same day. Mark was 5 and Greg a wise little three.

You've no doubt heard of the white collared man? Well, Doug Anderson must, indeed, be one! For his birthday he received nine shirts, besides a model MG from his son, Larry, who wants a chance to play with the one he got for his birthday. The Andersons had a card party at their 17220 Glenburn Ave. address and present to help him celebrate were the Leland Andersons and Fred Langrens.

The Paul Hoffmanns, 17035 Faysmith Ave., had old home week when friends in Maywood invited them to a party for former residents of Milwaukee, Wis. only!

The Clair Selgrists, 18818 Faysmith Ave., spent a weekend in Palm Springs. It was a combined business and pleasure trip.
