GOP Women To Discuss Constitution

Discussion of the first three articles of the United States Constitution, which concern the legislative, executive, and judicial departments, will spark the agenda tonight when the Peninsula Club of Republican Women meets at 8 o'clock at the Hollywood Riviera Clubhouse.

"We feel that a full understanding of our Constitution is necessary if we are to be able to understand the problems that rise in government today," Mrs. Richard Key, president, said. Further discussions also will be held on the narcotics problem, at its meeting, the club passed a resolution stressing stiffer penalties for adults guilty of supplying minors with narcotics, but now wishes to concern itself with finding a possible solution to the problem, Mrs. Key said. Reports also will be given on the County Federation of GOP Women's Club convention held Jan. 29 and on the activities of the 17th Congressional District Fact-Finding Committee.

Any woman who wishes to attend the meeting but cannot due to lack of transportation is requested to call Frances Penn at FRontier 74569.

Club Charts Lecture on Understanding

A special program, a lecture on "Understanding Yourself and Your Child" by Mrs. Dorothy Law, counselor, lecturer, and instructor in family life education, is planned for the Monday, Feb. 22 meeting of the Brunch Club of the First Methodist Church.

Session will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the church in order that fathers may attend. Anyone in Torrance is invited and experienced child care will be offered during the meeting.

The Brunch Club is composed of mothers of children attending Sunday School and usually meets the fourth Tuesday morning of each month. Mrs. Lyle Enger is president of the group.

Wives to Elect New President

Y-Wives of Torrance will elect a new president to replace Mrs. Victor Quackenbush, who has been called back to Texas by her husband's job transfer, when they meet tomorrow morning at the YWCA.

Election will follow the regular 9:30 o'clock hour of modern dancing and exercise to music. Following a coffee break, Mrs. Dorothy Spilde, of the Medical Social Workers' Division from the County Health Department will speak on Mental Hygiene.

All women in the community are urged to take advantage of the varied program offered by the Y-Wives Club. Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom, publicity chairman, said. Newcomers to Torrance are especially welcome to join and become acquainted.

22 Get Awards at Cub Pack 761-C Blue 'n' Gold Rites

In a solemn candlelighting ceremony, John Miller, Cubmaster of Pack 761-C made 22 awards at the Blue and Gold Pack meeting held at McMaster Park last Friday.

Seven white candles were lighted on a blue and gold square for Cubs getting Bobcat awards, who were Danny Baldwin, Eric Cortez, Gary Gladdy, David Gottevehut, Jan Onnes, Michael Towell, and Joey Verburg. Three red candles represented Wolf badges awarded to John Kallak, who also received one gold and three silver arrows; Clifford Enright; Clifford Craib, who also received one gold arrow.

A blue candle was lighted for Tommy Swain, who received a bear badge, and yellow candles burned for Terry Clark, Mickey Harden, Johnny Miller, Larry Walker, and Gerald Wright, who received gold arrows. Another candle was lighted for Keith Pfeiler, who earned his Webelos badge.

Two boys, Richard Ross and Richard Rogers, who have earned the Bobcats, returned for their certificates of Cub Completion. Adults receiving awards were Walt Bronson, five-year pin; Robert Bee and Howard Walker, three-year pins.

Among guests attending was Clinton Beeson, president of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association, which sponsors the Pack. Cub Mothers Club served the traditional blue and gold cake after the meeting. Table decorations were created by Mrs. Wendell Towell, refreshment chairman.

WSCS Hears About U.N.

Women's Society of Christian Service, Methodist Church, got a glimpse into various phases of work being done by the United Nations when Mrs. A. B. Jacobowsky addressed a general session of the group last Thursday evening at the church. Piano duets, "Silver Sky Waltz" and "Ave Maria" by Reiko Tonto and Michael Mullen, students of Mrs. Kathryn Buffington, also featured the program, opened with devotions by Mrs. Harry Gray. In charge of adult choir numbers, "When Jesus Wept" and "One World" was Earle Peterson, church minister of music.
