rational areas for the children of our city.
"Solicit more industry to the City of Torrance, thus providing more employment within our own boundaries.
"Work toward economies within our city through more efficiency."

Francis W. Burk
A candidate for the West Torrance area in the Council race is Frank Burk of 5104 Zerkon Rd. Burk was the first to file his nominating petition for Council and has pledged to conduct his campaign on three major issues:

"To carry on youth recreation in the city of Torrance, giving us two large youth centers in North and West Torrance.
"To improve street lighting throughout the Torrance residential area.
"To provide better bus service to and from Torrance, giving the outlying districts a chance to shop in our own city of Torrance."

Wilys G. Blount
Stated to file his nomination papers this morning for re-election is Councilman Wilys G. Blount, who is completing a four-year term on the Council this year.

The public will have a chance to meet all the candidates in an open forum at the Civic Auditorium on Thursday evening, April 8, according to plans announced yesterday by Dale Isenberg, executive secretary of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

An open forum sponsored by the Retail Merchants Division is being planned to:
1. Get out the vote.
2. To have an informed public.
3. To stimulate merchants' interest in civic affairs.
Cash prizes and merchandise awards are being planned for the rally.

Christ Jesus Sermon Theme For Sunday

The Master's example, demonstrating man's God-given dominion and power over sin, disease, and the grave, will be presented in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Christ Jesus" in all Christian Science churches.

"Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder," reads the Golden Text from Isaiah (9:6).

Matthew relates (23:18-20) that Jesus, following his resurrection, appeared to his disciples and declared, "All power is given unto me in heaven, and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "Christ illustrates that blending with God, his divine Principle, which gives man dominion over all the earth." Again she counsels, "His consummate example was for the salvation of us all, but only through doing the works which he did and taught others to do." (pp. 3116, 51).

Soap Sales Earn Camp Trip for Nine-year-old

Nine-year-old Jimmy Rovensline of 2029 Cabrillo is the first YMCA boy to completely earn his way to Camp Round Meadow by selling soap, S. C. Roberts of the YM revealed this week.

DESSERT TIME... Delicious desserts, like Berry Dessert Dumplings, will be a feature of Maxine Howe's cookery classes at the Civic Auditorium here March 11 and 12. Others to be prepared include luncheon parfaits, lemon chiffon pie, and three-baked cream cheese pie.

Last Saturday, in the driving rain, Jimmy sold his 128th box of soap, earning the last coins needed to pay his total camp fees.

When asked what he was going to do now that he was through, Jimmy said he was going to help his older brother Jay earn his way.

Over 40 boys are participating in this soap sale to earn camping fees and spending money. To date, 1182 boxes of soap have been sold by these youthful salesmen.

Any boy in the Torrance area may work on this project by contacting the YMCA and having his parents sign the participation approval application.

"My son Jerry is getting a terrific business experience"

"Tell me about it, Bob. That's something my boy certainly needs."
"Well, several months ago, Jerry took over a neighborhood newspaper route. I have been amazed at what happened since."
"In what way?"
"Jerry was first attracted by the idea of making money. But I can always give him money. What's been worth much more to him has been something I couldn't possibly give him."
"I don't quite follow you, Bob!"
"You remember Jerry as a shy youngster, don't you? Wait till you meet him now! Delivering and collecting a route has taught him how to meet and talk with people. He's developed into quite a salesman."

Perhaps your son would benefit from a newspaper route. Why not suggest that he come and talk to us!
