Parks Department Braces For Lake Opening

Once again the staff of the Los Angeles City Recreation and Park Department is bracing itself for the tense moment—8 a.m. March 15—when the doors of the City Hall's Room 225 swing open to admit a flood of anglers eager to make reservations of city-operated inboard motorboats and rowboats for the opening of another "big-fish parade" at Crowley Lake, the Eastern High Sierra "home of the giant trout."
