

County Job Info To Be Available At Two Libraries

The Los Angeles County libraries in the Carson and Keystone areas have been designated as two of the 100 official county job information posts by the Los Angeles Civic Service Commission. John D. Henderson, county librarian, announced this week.

The Carson branch, 554 E. 231st St., Wilmington, and the Keystone branch, 225 E. Carson St., each will receive a weekly list of job opportunities in all fields open in the County Civil Service.

Bookmarks containing job opportunities information are now available at each branch library, free of charge. In addition to being able to learn of job openings, patrons may secure service application forms to apply for the positions.

At the present time, over 100 job openings are listed in such fields as clerical, administration, recreation, social work, engineering, construction, trades and others.
