

Girls' Week Nears Finale at Narbonne

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
Well boys, tomorrow marks the finale of Girls' Week! It has been a wonderful week for the girls. Tuesday was visitation day which saw the girls going to various industrial plants, hospitals, schools, health centers and junior colleges. Barbara Irvin went up to Mayor Poulson's office. Luck dog! The girls all came back thoroughly enthusiastic. Various NHS administrative offices and classrooms were temporarily taken over by the Gaudochettes.

Narbonne's first annual science show was held last Tuesday in the library. This really great event was sponsored by the PTA. There were quite a few ribbons given for the well exhibits. The top exhibits will be entered in the Science Fair which will be held in Los Angeles County Museum sometime in April. Thanks goes to Mr. Cobbs and Mr. Langan for the superb work in making the show the success that it was.

The Westminster Fellowship went miniature golfing again last week-end at ever-popular Shady Acres in North Long Beach. The kids who all echoed that they had a great time were: Dennis Hudson, Bruce Wenger, Stan Wells, Dick Dawson (Torrance), Joan Armstrong, and Phyllis Hazelbaker.

"In the Good Old Days," is the theme of a talent show being put on by the Westminster Fellowship tomorrow night at 7:30 in the Lomita Presbyterian Church Social Hall. There will be no admission price but donations will be appreciated.

JaNet Ford and Joan Armstrong were some of the Narbonneites seen at the very impressive International Flower Show held at Hollywood Park. Both Joan and JaNet reported that the show was very worthwhile.

Chadwick School in Palos Verdes had better watch out! Rumors are that the GAA basketball teams which have agreed to challenge the "Hill James" next Tuesday are beginning to look sharp! The girls have been working hard at practice. Well, good luck gals, hope you come back with a victory.

It was readily agreed that the Senior Scholarship did an excellent about a year to share their hobbies and company. Guests present at this meeting included Mesdames Austin Sanderson, Moffinger, Rex Inglis, Don Malone and John Kinsey. Refreshments of pineapple angel pie and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bullington, 139 Calle de Andalucia, and family have moved from Riviera to their new home in Ellinwood. Their new address is 4527 Green Meadow Ave.

Under the leadership of Rivierans Bruce Mapes and Carlton Paul, the Cub Scouts of Pack 656, Dens 1, 3, 5 and 7 are preparing for their skits which will be presented at their meeting at 23 Bellini Park on April 2. The boys will play the various parts in their chosen theme "Wizard of Oz." Parents and friends invited of course.

Little Ann Marie Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jones, 261 Calle de Andalucia, celebrated her sixth birthday with a luncheon party last Sunday afternoon. "Circus" was the theme of the party, with streamers, balloons, and bright circus colors bounding in the patio. A large cake decorated with a clown drawing highlighted the festive table. Guests included Candy Gwinn, Butch Byrd, Tim and Pat Scott, Diane Duval, Larry and Julie Warden, Janice Geer, Jack and Jill Webb and the celebrant's brother, Tom.

Mr. and Mrs. Joan Reed, 138 Via Alameda, and their two boys, Larry 7, and Steve 5, together with neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Julius Toth, 184 Via Alameda, spent the past week-end at the Toth's cabin, just outside Hemet, Calif.

Mrs. Clyde Maddox, 123 Via Sego, was hostess at the March 11 meeting of the informal neighborhood "Hobby Nite" group. "Hobby Nite" is a get-together time for neighbors in that area, when they undertake projects of sewing, painting and other hobbies. They've been meeting for

Congratulations to Darrell Cole, former graduate, and Beverly Williams, A-11, who were married last Sunday.

Grace Crank and Dorothy Merriam, former NHS graduates, are presently enrolled at Whittier College.

Tomorrow marks another super-duper Junior High Sports Night in the boys gym starting at 8 and lasting till 10 p.m. Don't miss this one!

Next Thursday, a special concert play, "Good Night, Caroline," will be shown. Mr. Leo Moronito is the new drama sponsor and in the cast are Bill Brodiesby, Gloria Johnson, Pat Taylor, Rick Eekley, Mike Vargas, Eugene Martin, Leland Green, Darrell Hartman, and Walter Phillips.

On March 23, a bunch of females from the Home Economics Club are motoring to the Matching House in Hollywood. The House is run completely on electricity, so it should be a very interesting trip.

Chadwick School in Palos Verdes has challenged two Senior GAA basketball teams March 23. It should be hot!

Narbonne had its super-duper sports rally recently. Boy, every one really gave their voices a good workout!

Our Gancheo baseball made its season debut last week at Peck Park in San Pedro against a hepped-up Leuzinger team. Our boys are really getting sharp. By the way, all home games will be played at Peck Park, three miles south on Western.

April 1 and 2 mark the days of Narbonne Talent Show. Auditions were given Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Man, oh man, that Motormans really went over big with Narbonne! Some of the raving Gauchos seen there were Ruth Armes, Gordon Garnet, Frank and Dick Zury, and Anita side do something to bring out the artistic in us? We've always thought so; believed that you'd travel a long ways before you'd come across the same sort of artistic beauty that we enjoy here. Now comes a chance to see this theory verified. On Sunday, March 21, from 2 till 4 p.m., there will be an art exhibition at Casa Galeria, 498 Via Monte d'Oro. This is the name which Vera Grube has labeled the art gallery at her home there on our "main highway" leading up the hill.

The art exhibition will feature the works of Grube's pupils, age 4 to 14 years. Mrs. Grube has some 30 of these art students whom she is teaching the various talents of art, including charcoal, pencil, watercolor and oil painting. It will be their first exhibition after months of study and promises to reveal much natural talent coupled with the obvious advantages of the surrounding Riviera and the enlightening teachings of Mrs. Grube. Rivierans Mrs. T. F. Dellel is social chairman for the event, assisted by Mesdames Thorsten Burman, Jack Satterlee, Henry Schmalz and Robert Matson. By the way, for those of you mothers who suspect artistic talent lurks within your children, there are still a few openings in Mrs. Grube's art class. A phone call to her will give you further information on how your children may learn the fundamentals of art.

Girl Scouts of Riviera Troop 110 celebrated their organization's 42nd birthday with a progressive dinner held last evening. Under the leadership of Mrs. Emil Husekamp and Mrs. Douglas Farmer, the dinner started at 6 p.m. with appetizers at the home of Catherine Moore. The troop went to Lynn Satterlee's for their salads, and then to Adele Mullens for the entree of Irish stew (Hurray for St. Patrick!). Dessert of ice cream and cake was served at Lynn Burman's home, while the ice tea was served at Sandra Kratzer's. Girls in the troop include Lynn Burman, Ann Davis, Jocelyn Ferrelle, Ann Farmer, Lynn Satterlee, Sherill Smith, Robert Van Calcar and Catherine Moore.

International exchange students from Pepperdine College highlighted the general meeting of the Riviera PTA held Wednesday, March 17 at Riviera School. Dr. Woodred C. Whitten introduced the three students who are attending the college from foreign countries. After their talks, a question and answer period followed. Their chosen theme was "Our Dream of a Friendly World Progresses."

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, 851 Calle de Andalucia, with children Tom and Ann, visited San Diego Zoo on March 11, and other points of interest in and around San Diego. They report an enjoyable time, which gives us the chance to endorse this as an outstanding one-day trip. We did it ourselves a couple of years ago, packing a lunch about 3:30 in the morning. Tell us how you did it, we or our twins, Jack and Jill.

The organization meeting to form up the new Riviera Sea Scout troop was held March 12 at the Sportsmen's Club den at Riviera Beach Club with over 30 boys attending. The troop will be sponsored by the Riviera Sportsmen, who have pushed the formation of such a troop. At this meeting, Bob White, co-chairman, spoke on regulations while Chairman Rex Hayes explained the official charter which will be attained at the meeting to be held tomorrow night. The new troop will meet each Friday evening, starting at 7, at the Sportsmen's Den. Limit of the troop is 30 members, of which 15 are to be boys, and there are only a few openings left for any boys, age 14 to 18 who wish to join. Among the Rivierans belonging are Brian Beckman, Dick Bernath, Robert Van Calcar and James Sanok.

Elected president of the IQ chapter of the PEO recently was Mrs. Vene Darby of 240 Via Buena Ventura. Chapter IQ is a part of the South Bay Harbor PEO with headquarters in San Pedro. Also elected to office, at the same meeting was Mrs. Lawrence Bowen, 232 Paseo de Gracia, only other Rivieran to be elected officer. Mrs. Bowen was also chosen as delegate to the state convention to be held in Pasadena in May, and as representative to the South Bay Harbor Reciprocity Bureau.

On Channel 4 last Saturday afternoon was landscape architect Dick Gawne, 280 Calle de Andalucia. The Farm and Garden Show over that channel featured him in a show concerning how to train flowers and shape plants; what to plant and where, and the correct flowers for certain types of architecture.

Gordon W. Shields, 149 Paseo de las Delicias, has returned from a two-week weather refresher course for Air Force reserve weather officers at the UCLA campus. The course was planned to bring Shields and other reservists up to date on the new developments in the science of meteorology.
