AGNES BOLTER, Editor

ROMANTIC TWOSOME . . . Jim Reeves as George and Pat Rogers as Constance enact a scene from "Affairs of State," Hampton Players' production which will go on stage at Redondo Union High School Apr. 2, 3, 9 and 10. Pair, both of whom reside in Hollywood Riviera, are romantic leads in the drama about political life in Washington. Tickets are now on sale and may be obtained by calling Frontier 5-2731.

EXCITED QUARTET . . . John and Marguerite Melville, 1512 El Prado, and Dr. John and Myra Beeman, 1518 El Prado, left to right, wear colorful leis and happy smiles as the Lurline arrived in Honolulu Harbor last week, bringing them to the Islands for a three-week stay. The local couples embarked on the luxury liner from Los Angeles Harbor on Mar. 15.

PEEK-A-BOO . . . Joan (Mrs. David) Cook shows a candy stripe taffeta with velveteen detail at the decollete neckline and three-quarter length sleeves with a slip to match. Helping her display the costume are Lois (Mrs. Robert E.) Bowen in a navy flecked with white suit and matching cape topped with white linen insets and Joanne (Mrs. James) Jones in a cinnamon linen afternoon frock appliqued with white flowers and rhinestone detail. All costumes, shown at The Gay Shop, will be seen at the Y-Wives fashion show tomorrow morning. (Herald photo)

Circus To Arrive at North City School Next Saturday

"The circus is coming to town!" is the cry resounding through the halls of North Torrance Elementary School these days as the PTA, in co-operation with the school's service club, makes final arrangements for the Johnny Strong Circus, which will be at the school grounds from 11 a.m. 'til 4 p.m. next Saturday, Mar. 27.

Three performances of the hour-long, 10-act show are scheduled, the first to begin at 11 a.m., the second at 1 p.m., and the third at 3 p.m. In addition, a miniature manager will be on hand all day and many food and game booths will add to the fun.

Members of the school service club, directed by Mrs. Eloise Loomis, kindergarten teacher, are handling ticket sales for the event, priced at 25 cents for the circus and nine cents for the manager. Kids may get their tickets now or purchase them on the day of the circus.

Mrs. Walter Buffington, finance and budget chairman of the PTA, is handling general arrangements for the gala affair. A baked foods sale will be supervised throughout the day by Mrs. Charles Stauffer, while a hot dog, cold drinks, and coffee concession will be staffed by Mesdames Robert Payne and Tone Rogers.

Cartoon movies, at a cost of five cents, will be on view all day, with Robert Richter handling arrangements.

A penny pitch will be added

To Hear Public Defender Ray Choate, deputy public defender of Los Angeles County, will tell some of his experiences in his work tonight when he addresses a meeting of the South Bay Women's American Legion Post 962, to begin at 8 o'clock at the Legion Hall in Redondo Beach.

POSTER PARTY . . . Eyeing colorful posters made by members of the school service club to advertise the PTA-sponsored circus slated for Saturday, Mar. 27, are these students at Torrance Elementary School, left to right: Albert Lucero, eighth grade, 16093 Arlington Ave.; Sandra Strickland, seventh grade, 16422 Wilton Pl.; Mark Lowe, sixth grade, 17104 Wilkie Ave.; Nancy Terheggen, seventh grade, 2063 W. 159th St.; and Patricia Lindsey, fifth grade, 16403 Wilton Pl. ## Council PTA Election Set Election of officers will highlight the agenda of tomorrow's Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA, to be held at Banning Park, Wilmington.

Mrs. Joseph S. Hook, managing editor of the California Parent-Teacher magazine and a past president of the Tenth District Parent-Teacher Association, will be guest speaker for the day, Catskill Ave. PTA members will be hostesses at a potluck luncheon following the general meeting.

All Council board members and unit PTA delegates are requested to attend this session, Mrs. B. H. Cottrhan, press chairman, reported.

SET FOR SWIM . . . is Wanda (Mrs. Bob) Johnston, modeling the "treasure chest" bathing suit made of acetate, cotton, and rubber. Segments trim the boned bodice of this suit, shown at The Gay Shop and one of the many which will be on display at the Y-Wives fashion show tomorrow morning.

Bathing Suits to Feature Tomorrow's Fashion Show

Spring and summer fashions from dawn 'til dark, with the spotlight on bathing suits, will be presented by The Gay Shop tomorrow morning when the Y-Wives meet at 10 o'clock at the Carson St. YWCA.

A donation of 50 cents will be asked of each person attending, Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom, press chairman, said, and two major prizes will be awarded at the conclusion of the show. First prize will be a haircut, shampoo, and "set" at Pearl's Beauty Shop here, while the second award will be a jewelry gift, she said.

Mrs. Edward Dahlen will deliver the commentary on the styles, while models in the parade will be Mesdames R. W. Johnson, David Cook, Robert Bowen, James Jones, and E. F. Townsend.

Refreshments will be served, and anyone interested is invited to attend.

Set Saturday Begonia Club Slates Dinner

Plans for tomorrow night's monthly meeting of the Redondo Branch Begonia Society were made last week when the board of directors held its regular meeting.

The evening will begin with a covered dish dinner at 6:30 p.m., according to Mrs. S. C. Sault, press chairman. Board business was concluded with members presenting Mrs. Sault and her husband with a money tree, a "housewarming" gift for their new home at 26938 Dapplegray Lane, Rolling Hills.

Mrs. C. Jones Honored at Bridge Party

Close friends of Mrs. Chris Jones, 2118 Martina Ave., honored her with a "bon voyage" gift following a bridge party held at the 1530 El Prado home of Mrs. W. L. Laughon Friday evening, with Mrs. Earl Miles sharing hostess honors.

Mrs. Jones, her husband, and daughter Mary, are planning to leave Torrance Apr. 17, driving their car East to visit many points of interest before embarking for Wales and Scotland on May 12. They will leave from Quebec, Canada, May 12 on the RMS Scythia and plan a six-months stay in Scotland and Wales.

Guests at the Friday event were the honoree and Mesdames Harry Massie, Ray Rogers, Ambrose Silligo, Ellis Owen, C. M. Crook, C. P. Olson, Charles E. Woodcock, Carl Engberg, Lewis Perley, Ray Olson, A. F. E. Ewald, H. J. Osborne, M. I. Laughon, and Mrs. Laughon's mother, Mrs. Lolly Ahrens.
