

Sailor Leaves on Tour Of Caribbean In Sub

Leo S. Masterson, radioman first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo W. Masterson of 616 E. Carson St., and husband of the former Miss Bernadine A. Platt of Wallingford, Conn., is serving aboard the submarine USS Threadfin which left Key West, Fla., on March 25 for a month of operations at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

While at Guantanamo Bay, the Threadfin will provide services to surface units of the U. S. Atlantic Fleet for further development of anti-submarine training and tactics. During the Threadfin's stay in the Caribbean, two week-end cruises are planned to Port au Prince, Haiti and Santiago, Cuba.

Gauchos Welcome Easter Vacation

Boy! This Easter vacation has really been swell! Many Gauchos have made trips to the mountains, beach, etc. And a lot of the kids have been just plain loafin' and trying to catch up on their beauty sleep. Happy Easter! (Don't eat too much, or you'll miss school and you sure wouldn't want to miss it!)

Many congratulations are being extended to Narbonne's brand new Ephraim—Marie Traunfelder, Shirley Endo, Woody Buchanan, Bill Brockesby, Don Meyers, and Mike McGee. Only four were supposed to be picked from the 12 nominated, but since the election was so close, six were picked. Good luck, kids!

Celia Ochoa was chosen by her classmates to preside over the A-9's in an election last week. Elected to assist Celia are Betty Carlson, vice-president; Minnie Ruiz, secretary-treasurer. The class picked lime green and charcoal as class colors, and white carnations as their class flower.

Those lucky seniors received

Midshipman Attends Sub Base At Groton, Conn.

Among the 44 Naval Reserve Midshipmen from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Rensselaer, N.Y., who visited the U.S. Naval Submarine Base in Groton, Conn. recently was Neal M. Burdick, son of Mrs. Neil M. Burdick of 1407 Cota Ave. The midshipmen's indoctrination tour included an inspection of the Submarine Service's training facilities, the officer's submarine school and the escape training tank. They also went aboard the submarines USS Dogfish and Diablo.

After church services at the Base chapel Sunday the group returned to Rensselaer.
