Moms Show Easter Styles In Spring-like Atmosphere

Stage at White Point School took on the look of a spring garden, complete with an arbo and trellis covered with climbing geraniums last week when the Lomita-San Pedro Council PTA held an "Easter Parade of Fashions."

Style show was arranged by the adult education class of Mrs. Bonnie Moss and fashions were created and modeled by neighborhood mothers. Mrs. Becca Detert directed the White Point Mothersingers in appropriate background music while Mrs. William Lelsik and Mrs. Perry Mendenhall gave the commentary.

A mission brown wool flannel suit with fitted jacket, modeled by Mrs. Robert Paul, was one of the high points of the show, followed by Mrs. Mendenhall showing a navy blue wool serge two-piece suit with the new short box jacket and a sailor hat.

Also showing suits were Mrs. Arthur Halkens and Mrs. Albert Johnson. Mrs. Halkens' ensemble was a casual navy blue cotton gabardine with fitted jacket, while Mrs. Johnson's black and white silk shantung two-piece featured buttons over 100 years old.

In the coat-line were a brown wool modeled by Mrs. Morris Bulwa and a pink cashmere showed by her daughter, Lynn. Mrs. Nell Irvine modeled the old-fashioned "Alice Blue Gown," while Mrs. Leffert Hart sang the title song.

Stunning in a green wool seintailored dress, with hat trimmed to match, was Mrs. Mendenhall, while Mrs. Paul took the spotlight again in a coral silk shantung sheath dress with large collar and large bow at the waist. A raw silk light green frock, also in the sheath style with slim skirt and short bolero, was shown by Mrs. Bulwa, while a blue and white dotted nylon dress with large collar and large bow at the waist was displayed by her daughter.

Miss Allyn Martin and her doll, Nancy, were dressed mother and daughter fashion in blue embossed cotton jumper-pe dresses; Miss Mary Ann Jernich showed an embossed cotton party dress; and Mrs. Ben Grter showed a royal blue tie silk dress.

Evening fashions included a pink semi-formal gown with nylon half-petli slip modeled by Mrs. Mendenhall; a short black formal with silk organza overskirt, hand-painted and imported from France, displayed by Mrs. John Crockett; and two white formals, one a nylon net accented with rhinestones and hand-applied sprays of flowers shown by Mrs. Donald Brenden.
