Teach Named To Insurance Post

Harold R. Teach, of 5341 Sharynne Lane, has been named as assistant secretary of Title Insurance and Trust Company Los Angeles, President W. Herbert Allen announced this week. Appointment by the firm's board of directors makes Teach, a 28-year employee, an officer in America's largest title company and Southern California's oldest trust company. He is assistant manager of the escrow department. Teach worked as a messenger in the escrow department when he first joined Title Insurance and Trust Company on October 13, 1925. He has been a chairman, teacher and title officer for 33 years prior to assuming his present position last year. He was an escrow officer. He is also a member of the company's speakers bureau.

The 48-year-old Air Force veteran was a Lt. Colonel and squadron commander during World War II. He is active in the Air Force Reserve and American Legion today.

Pair to Attend Banquet for PE

K. L. Anderson, Pacific Electric Railroad agent for Torrance with offices at 1200 Boder Ave., with J. P. Meyer, assistant agent, will attend the 32nd annual Pacific Electric Railway Agents' Association banquet Tuesday in the ballroom of Roger Young Auditorium, Los Angeles.

Agents and their guests will witness an entertainment program and hear an address by V. P. Whetstone, Southern California officer for General Motors, George F. Squires, PE vice-president and general manager, will be master of ceremonies.

The traditional banquet is the company social highlight of the year for agents along Pacific Electric freight lines in the four counties of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino. Annually it honors retired agents as well as active personnel with perfect attendance records at agents' meeting during the past year.
