Round the Riviera Riviera Scouts Set For Active Summer

By MARY and JACK WEBB
FR 5-3051

Busily prepping for a rough camp-out to be held this summer at Catalina Island are our two Riviera Girl Scout troops, No. 68 and 138. The former Riviera troop is under the leadership of Mrs. M. J. Hornbeck, 210 Calle de Madrid while Troop 138 is led by Mrs. George Hummel, 856 Calle de Arboles. Already the two troops, complete with sleeping bags, have had two practice campouts at El Retiro Park, plus a recent trip to Palm Springs accompanied by mothers and dads. The sleeping bags were again in use at the Springs, but this time inside girls' dormitories located there. According to reports, the fathers not only took their daughters on hikes into the surrounding desert, and accompanied them on horseback rides but cooked the breakfasts as well.

Rivieran parents accompanying their daughters on the Palm Springs trip were Messrs. A. and Mesdames Edwin Bakerbower, Clark Portzer, Jack Satterlee and Joe Hornbeck. Mrs. George Hummel, whose husband was East on business, also went on the trip.

Then just last week, on Friday, April 30, the troops took another long camp-out in preparation for the big one at Catalina. This time they chose Camp Archie at Portuguese Bend. Long about June 20 or 21, the big camp-out at Catalina takes place, and we trust after all these sessions, our Riviera Girl Scouts will be more than ready to pass the tests for the pioneer badge. That's what they're working for, you know. Members of troop 66 include Eaden Booth, Sally Barlow, Gail Bowman, Mary Lynn Brian, Ellen Daeil, Jane Holmes, Allana Hornbeck, Barbara Hummel, Susan Matson, April Satterlee, Linda Rutledge and Rose Mary Sieh. Troop members of No. 138 include Barbara Bakerbower, Jan Dudley, Inge Edlund, Ivana Ferranti, Diana Jones, Janet Larson, Patsy Mahoney, Frances Marilli, Carol Portzer and Helen Zalesny. Rivierans Lynn Satterlee and Marilyn Hummel, while not members of either troop, accompanied them on the Portuguese Bend trip.

Mrs. Ernest J. Weller, 728 Calle de Arboles, returned home last Sunday after a three-day stay at the Queen of Angels Hospital in Los Angeles. Mrs. Jack Morris, of San Fernando Valley, her sister-in-law, stayed with Mrs. Waller's four children and took care of the housework during her absence.

Mrs. Mabel Blackmun, mother of Mrs. Lee Scott, 146 Calle de Andaluca, has completed her winter stay at the Riviera home of her daughter. Last Saturday, May 1, she and Mrs. Scott journeyed by auto to Santa Cruz, Calif., where Mrs. Blackmun maintains her permanent residence. Mrs. Scott returned to Riviera Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker III of Oceanside, her daughter and son-in-law, took charge of the Scott household during her absence.

That red-headed Rivieran dashing busily all over the Riviera hills is Jack Carlisle, 328 Paseo de Gracia, who has been appointed district chairman for the Redondo Beach St. James Festival to be held May 22 and 23. He's in charge of all festival affairs for the Riviera district, and needs two more hands and four more legs to keep up with the details.

Into their new home at 925 Calle Miramar moved the J. D. Smillies, formerly of Palos Verdes Apartments. Their new home, designed in interesting fashion, is built on five levels. Just as they finished their unpacking on moving-in day, friends dropped by to hold a surprise welcoming party. Arriving complete with food and refreshments were the Lee Kendalls, Bob Underwoods from Riviera, together with Bill Wallace of Palos Verdes and Gish Jovanovitch of Pacific Palisades. And just to finish April in grand style, within a few days of moving in, Mrs. Smith tied off to the Hawthorne Hospital for her delayed major operation, spent five days undergoing surgery and recuperation.

NEW NEIGHBOR Dept.: Meet Mr. and Mrs. Peter W. Pepper and their two boys, Michael 3½, and Christopher, 1, of 150 Calle de Andaluca. The Peppers moved to their new address on May 1 from the Palos Verdes Apartments where they had lived for three years.

A dessert and contract bridge party was held at the home of Mrs. Lee Scott, 146 Calle de Andaluca, for the Las Vecinas monthly card party. Guests at the affair were Mesdames O. C. Lundstrom, Matt Brunning, Charles Sturgill, David J. Hurford, Louis Regan and Lloyd M. Hemmen. Apple pie a la mode and coffee were served as refreshment. Mrs. Mabel Blackmun, mother of Mrs. Scott, also attended the party.

Our condolences to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wermuth, 209 Paseo de Granada, on the passing of his mother, Mrs. Phyllis Wermuth. Bob flew back to Chicago last week to attend to the necessary affairs, returning home to Riviera on Monday evening, May 3.

Moving to their new home at 845 Calle Miramar soon will be Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baldwin and family of 139 Paseo de Granada. In a surprise move, the Baldwins sold their Paseo de Granada home where they had lived for so many years, to purchase the new view home on Miramar. More room for an expanding family is the reason, say the Baldwins. New owners at 139 Paseo de Granada will be Mr. and Mrs. Garry H. Ford.

Also on the list of nomads this week are Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Peters, formerly of 331 Calle de Andaluca, who sold their home last week and have moved to an apartment on Calle Miramar. There they will stay until they occupy their new home in the new Estates tract atop the Riviera hill.

And if a smiling Boy Scout comes to your door soon, he'll be after selling you tickets to the very worthwhile Boy Scout Circus to be held at the Los Angeles Coliseum on Saturday, June 5 from 7:30 p.m.
