Signups for 'Y' Day Camp Start

Pete Andersen of 1556 W. 221st St. was the first boy to sign for the YMCA Day Camp program, to begin June 28.

A five-day per week camp is available for boys ages 8 1/2 through 12 and transportation from home and return is being arranged. Two swimming lessons per week have been scheduled at the San Pedro YMCA and additional swimming opportunities will be given under the supervision of the Day Camp Director, Cliff Graybehl, THS coach.

Graybehl is interviewing possible day camp leaders and instructors so that the program can begin to roll June 28. Overnight camping dates at Camp Archie Shields have been scheduled so that the campers will receive a well-rounded program.

Camp Rosters Filling Fast

Signups for the YMCA summer camps have reached the half-way mark, it was announced this week.

A total of 63 boys are scheduled to go to Camp Round Meadow July 13-20 and 12 boys are signed up for the High Sierra Caravan July 29 to August 5.

Signups are coming in a faster rate than in past years, according to Stan Roberts, Y executive secretary. "It looks like the camp will be filled by the time school vacation begins, if the rate continues," he reported.

Boys 8 1/2 through 14 are eligible to attend Camp Round Meadow and the High Sierra Caravan is for boys 12 to 16.

Work Parties To Hit Camp

Work parties will hit Camp Round Meadow June 5 and 6 to prepare the camp for the arrival of Torrance YMCA boys.

Al Turner and Don Anderson will head parties that will finish two new cabins and paint the inside of the dining hall. The tree-felling unit will be headed by Gil Derouin.

The work groups need a spray paint unit and manpower to operate it, according to Stan Roberts, Y executive secretary. Interested workers can call Turner at FA 8-2026 or Anderson at 8-4420.
