Boys Go Nuts Over Camping

Twelve hundred cans of peanuts—600 lbs. of salted nuts—have been sold to date by Torrance YMCA boys carrying their way to summer camp.

The big salesmen in the campaign are Leonard Cole, Melvin Davis, Richard Neveau and Gary Rice. In less than two weeks, these boys have earned over 50% of their camp fees, according to YMCA spokesmen.

Twenty-six salesmen are working on this project to earn their way to YMCA Camps either Round Meadow or High Sierras, Stan Roberts, YMCA Executive Secretary, said.

The boys have more than a month to go before the sales end, so that any boy in this area can try his hand at the sales for camp by getting his sales agreement at the YMCA and picking up his case of peanuts.
