

Rebekahs Hold Memorial Rites

A memorial tableau in honor of deceased members highlighted last week's Wednesday meeting of Trio Rebekah Lodge No. 240.

The rites were conducted before an altar beautified with spring flowers, a cross, and a

PLAN RUMMAGE SALE

The "House of Rummage" at 1146 Pacific Ave., San Pedro, will be setting for a rummage sale to be sponsored by the Trio Rebekah Lodge Friday, June 12. Doors will open at 8 a.m. and close at 5 p.m., according to Ruth Jacobs, publicity chairman.

Anyone having items to donate to the sale should call Edith Marriott at Davenport 6310 on or before June 1, Mrs. Jacobs added.

Bible Members sang "In the Garden" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" as a final tribute to their departed club sisters.

Delegates to the recent Assembly at Fresno, Emma Applin, Gertrude Kastrop, and Ada Anderson were presented with gifts by Lurah Best and Frances Lee on behalf of Trio Helpers Club. Friendship Night, with all lodges in the district participating, will theme the next Trio Rebekah meeting, to be held Wednesday, June 10, at the California Hall.

'DAUGHTERS' FETE QUEEN

A silver shower honoring the outgoing queen, Miss Marian MacDonald, climaxed an "Around the World" progressive dinner held Monday night of last week by Job's Daughters.

The shower was held at the 2076 Santa Fe St. home of incoming Queen Carol Campbell following a dessert of cake and punch which topped off an evening menu featuring foods of many countries.

The nearly 60 girls participating in the festivities gathered first at the Beech Ave. home of Miss MacDonald for a taste of Swiss cookery. Next stops were the Manuel Ave. home of Karen Rice for tropical dishes, and the Gramercy Ave. home of Janice Crabtree for Chinese food.

WAR MOMS TO PLAN SUMMER ACTIVITIES

Plans for the summer months will be discussed next Wednesday night, June 10, when American War Mothers meet at 8 o'clock in the courtroom of the City Hall.

Mrs. Violet Alvarez of Lomita will conduct the business session.

I had to hide in the back of our store while I had my clothes cleaned after this shot, but it was worth it. And using good stuff like this we sell in our store, one shot is all you need. You know it's good!

If you're stumped for a graduation present why not come in and have a little talk with me or the boss? We might just solve that little problem for you and without busting your budget wide open, either. A camera is a wonderful gift and if you buy it here you'll be proud to give it no matter what price you pay because everyone knows we don't handle junk.

See you next week.
