It's Huck Finn Day Again at Alondra Park

Grab yore fishin' poles, young-uns, fergit yore shoes, it's Huck Finn Day at Alondra Lake, and the waters air e'squirming with bass and catfish, jest itchin' to be ketchid.

A nostalgic page-of American fiction will be brought to life this Saturday at Alondra Lake when hundreds of youngsters will dress as their version of Mark Twain's beloved characters, Huckleberry Finn and Becky Thatcher, at the Sixth Annual Huck Finn Day, sponsored by the County Department of Parks and Recreation.

From 9 to 2 a.m. at the lake, which is located on Redondo Beach Blvd. west of El Camino College, boys and girls 15 years old or under will cast for fish in the well-stocked waters, and the first one to catch a fish will win a prize. Prizes, in the form of ribbons, will also be given for the largest and the smallest fish caught, and the youngest fisherman present also will rate a ribbon.

Judges will select the two youngsters whom they believe best typify the Mississippi rogue, Huckleberry Finn, and his pretty companion, Becky Thatcher, and the winners' names will be inscribed on perpetual trophies, which are kept at the lake.

The youngest costumed Huck Finn and Becky Thatcher will be given prizes also, and have their names put onto trophies. At 11:30 County Supervisor Burton Chace will present the awards.

For the fishing contests, bait will be supplied, but young fishermen must bring their own poles and hooks. Whether rod and reel or stick and bent pin, everyone has a chance—the fish aren't choosy, and there are nine acres of water full of bass, bluegill and catfish waiting to be hooked, according to Arleen Arnell, director of Alondra Park. Entertainment will be provided by Joe Richmond and Beverly Adland, radio and TV personalities, who will also lead the parade dressed as Huck and Becky, at 11:30.

also awarded a contract for installation of playground equipment at the school. The job went to the Industrial Tubular Equipment Co., on a low bid of $1250.

SUMMER FASHIONS . . . Charles Jalo and Jackie Ferguson, previous winners in the Huck Finn Day contest at Alondra Lake, model the proper attire for modern-day Huck Finn and Becky Thatchers for the hundreds of young aspirants to the title, who will be judged Saturday at the Sixth Annual Huck Finn Day, sponsored by the County Department of Parks and Recreation. The contest will be held from 9 to 12 a.m. at the lake, which is situated on Redondo Beach Blvd. west of El Camino College.

Plans Adopted For Additions

Blueprints for construction of the bungalows will be built on a temporary basis, pending construction of the new school. Earl Barnett, principal of the school, will discuss plans for the new school with architects soon, and it is hoped that construction will begin within three years.

The bungalow-type classrooms will be 74 by 20 feet in size. Two of the proposed classrooms will be used for instruction.
