Open Air Affairs Attract Kiddies

By TEO CUNNINGHAM

Well, vacation days are here, and if people aren't planning theirs, they're dreaming about one. . . Kids are looking forward to their week or perhaps it's two weeks they are scheduled for at the camps of their choice. . . and those that aren't ready for a holiday until late summer are taking advantage of the varied program offered by the Recreation Department.

This week and next finds the Brownies and Girl Scouts of Torrance, Lomita, and Walteria attending Day Camp at the Torrance Park from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Those from Kettler Knolls that are getting camping experience are Margaret Aarupe, Judy and Janice Fredrickson, Diane and Nancy Walters, Emily Greer, Jorie Cunningham, Donna Tidmarsh, and Patty Pearson.

Speaking of camping, the girls of Intermediate Scout Troop No. 936, which is sponsored by Torrance Elementary, went on an overnight last week-end. The site was Camp Archie Shields in Portuguese Bend, and though the time went much too fast, the girls had a perfectly wonderful time and did a lot of work toward their badges. Scouts enjoying the outing were Judy and Janice Fredrickson, Marie Turner, Kiyoko Takeuchi, Gay Larsen, Mary Drazkowski, Emily Greer, Nancy Walters, Sharon Brace, Karen Kerch, Donna Dunklin, Judy Welster, Mimi Cowan and Barbara Hannan. Chaperoning the group were Co-leader Ina Larsen and Scout Mother Donella Drazkowski.

Brownie Scouts in Troop No. 225 recently celebrated the troop's first birthday. It was a big occasion and only a party would be a fitting enough observance, so the mothers were invited to come share the beautifully decorated cake (carrying out the Brownie colors and theme in the brown and yellow) and ice cream. Patty Woodman was in charge at that time, and her mother, Mrs. Betty Woodman, was invested as the new co-leader. The girls who had been charter members were each presented with their one-year cluster which they proudly wear on their Brownie sashes. A committee member was given a miniature Girl Scout pin in recognition of her work and support. The troop has been led by Mrs. Margaret Castle with Mabel Crossman as co-leader. Mrs. Castle is giving up her leadership so Mabel is talking over the helm with Betty Woodman to help.

In expectation of the McComas heir-to-be, Mama Lucille McComas was guest of honor at an "infantification" shower Friday evening. The Falena St. home of Barbara Juvet, who was hostess with Bernie Hartley as co-hostess, was the scene of the festive evening. With the house gay with spring flowers in diapher-shaped vases, the guests enjoyed the evening playing buncos. Wanda Yancey, proving herself the best buncos player, won first prize. As favors, the friends honoring Lucille received diapher-shaped nut-cups and their napkins were folded in the shape of a baby sacque. The girls enjoying the delicious and somewhat different crab salad and hot rolls were the honoree's mother, Wanda Yancey, Vivian Wise, Lola Crow, and Caroline Chandler.

Taking an early vacation and visiting with her sister is Virginia Byrum's sister, making it a full house at the Byrum residence on Falena St. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Yuede and sons Stevie and Jimmy have really enjoyed themselves seeing "the sights." The boys, who are 3 and 6 years of age, thought the evening spent at the Long Beach Pike was by far the best of all. The Yuedes arrived a week ago last Wednesday morning enroute to their home in St. Louis, Mo. after visiting another sister in San Francisco. They plan to continue their journey the latter part of the week.

You know, these kids of ours grow up so fast! Why just Saturday Joyce Wayt, daughter of Jimmy and Madelyn Wayt of Reynosa Dr., celebrated her eleventh birthday. . . Seems no time at all since she was seven. Joyce was hostess to four of her little friends at a barbecue out in the patio, by way of celebration. Of course, there was a decorated cake to make the day complete. Diane Wicker, Diane Wayt, Donnis Wainwright, and Mimi Cowan all held their breath while Joyce blew up the candles. . . and then wished her a loud and hearty "Happy Birthday Joyce!"

If the Smart heir-to-be isn't well dressed and taken care of, it certainly won't be through any fault of its popular young mother's friends, for they have literally showered her with showers the latest of which was hosted by Barba Bolles and Wynn Ferguson at the Bolles home on Reynosa Dr. last Wednesday evening. Her bosses at Kettler and Wiley presented Pauline with a Welch Boogie-buggy into which Barba had each guest deposit her gift. The house was decorated with baby toys and balloons, so the blessed event atmosphere was quite prevalent. The two games played were different, to say the least: one being that each guest was given a piece of newspaper and when the lights were turned off the guest was to tear a stork out of it. . . Amazing results and such looking stories! Even Mother Nature would shudder, and perhaps laugh too. The other game, played that each guest wrote a telegram with each word beginning with a letter of the guest's first name. . . thus the only letters that Pauline could use were "P-A-U-L-I-N-E." Ruth Jacobs and Charlyn Billich were the winners. Of course, the high point of the evening was the opening of gifts presented by the co-hostesses, the prize winners and Delores Thorson, Ora Baker, Thelma Ritchey, Marilyn Floyd, and Barbara Husband. The evening was completed with the serving of cheese cake and coffee, mixed well with friendly chatter.
