HAPPY ANGLER . . . Vacationing Bill Brase, of 2435 Border Ave., pulled this 5 lb., 8 oz. large mouth black bass out of Lake Osoyoos, in Washington just on the Canadian border last week. He used a home-made plug and brought the scrappy bass to gaff on six-pound line with a three-pound leader.

... Error-fests

to center, Moe Jarrett hit one on the ground to shortstop Jack Geddes. Geddes threw home in an attempt to cut off the winning run, but threw wild, and both Turner and Ladd scored to wrap up the ball game.

It was a heartbreaker for Merchant pitcher Doc Burgess, who held the powerful Home Loan team to four hits. Home Loan's other two runs were their only earned ones. They scored them in the first when Moe Jarrett singled and Ernie Hobbs blasted a home run.

BMA vs. South Bay
The South Bay Church played their best game of the season Monday night against Walteria Businessmen's Association, and had it not been for untimely walks, errors, and the fickle finger of fate, they might have won.

As it went, BMA took the same 10-8 to hand South Bay its fifteenth straight defeat—but it was a fairly close defeat.

In fact, the score was only 6-5 in favor of BMA, going into the fourth inning. Then BMA's Joe O'Hara singled, went to second on a passed ball, to third when South Bay Catcher Frank Hecht threw wild to see out trying to pick him off, and scored when Jerry Harkins hit one through the left fielder for another error.

Harkins pulled up at second, but didn't stay there long. He dashed to third on a passed ball and scored when catcher Hecht threw to third trying to pick him off.

LaRoy Schumert knocked a home run for BMA in the third.

Salvation Army Asks For Help In Aiding Needy

With the school term ended, the Salvation Army Social Service Center which serves Torrance and surrounding territory is being swamped with requests for all kinds of children's summer clothing, and lawn swings and other outdoor furniture, according to Brigadier Ranson D. Gifford, manager.

Castoff articles contributed to the Salvation Army by local residents fill the needs of poor families and make possible a continued rehabilitation program for needy and handicapped persons, Brigadier Gifford said.

He reported that the center is providing a work therapy program for 125 persons daily. Articles collected by Red Shield trucks are reconditioned in the center's workshops thus providing food, shelter and financial assistance to handicapped men who are unable to find employment in private industry.

"We want our friends to know," said Brig. Gifford, "that the Salvation Army has always been and still is a non-profit organization and that all receipts from its thrift stores above actual operating costs are returned in the form of financial aid to homeless and handicapped and unfortunate persons."

He said the center also needs a continuous inflow of every kind of salvage including men's and women's clothing, furniture, shoes, dishes, mattresses, bedding, kitchen utensils, home appliances, silverware, stoves, radios, bric-a-brac to continue its program.

The Salvation Army leader urged local residents to telephone FAIRfax 8-1635 to bring a Red Shield truck to home or office to collect discarded but still usable articles.

Chace Offered Office Space by Local Chamber
Supervisor Burton Chace will be offered free space in the Torrance Chamber of Commerce building at 1345 El Prado if he wishes to set up a branch office in Torrance, Dale Isenberg, executive secretary of the Chamber, said yesterday.

Isenberg's announcement followed a remark by Chace last week that he was investigating the possibility of setting up branch offices throughout his sprawling Fourth District.
