... To Be Feted by Demos

Homecoming Fete Planned for Cecil R. King

A homecoming dinner rally for Congressman Cecil R. King in the Civic Auditorium is being planned by the Torrance Democrats, Inc., for the latter part of August or early September, it was announced yesterday.

A tentative date of Aug. 29 has been set, according to Gordon Lewis, president of the local Demo club, but the actual date will depend on the adjournment of Congress, normally slated for the end of July.

Dinner chairman for the event is Mrs. Ella Schwartz. Admission to the dinner will be limited to 600, and about half of the tickets have been sold, club officials say.

National and state dignitaries will be at the rally for the 17th District Congressman.

Ticket information may be obtained by telephoning Lewis at MElo 4-0230, Mrs. Irene Fraser at FAirfax 8-0291, or El. L. Carreau at FRontier 8-1276.

Local Men Gain Office in S. Bay Bar Association

Don Hitchcock and Carlton Newborn, of Torrance, were installed corresponding secretary and member of the Board of Governors respectively of the South Bay Bar Association at ceremonies held recently at the Portuguese Bend Club.

Outgoing officers included Albert Isen, outgoing vice-president and Irving Lessin, outgoing corresponding secretary, both of Torrance.

Judge Collamer A. Bridge of Hermosa Beach was installed president succeeding William E. MacFaden of Redondo Beach.

Other incoming officers were George H. Lowery, Manhattan, vice-president; Robert Beverly, Redondo, recording secretary; and Arnold Cowan, Redondo, treasurer.

Other members of the incoming board of governors were Thomas Fredericks, Hermosa; D. Clifford Higgins, Manhattan; John Barry, Hermosa; and MacFaden.

Other outgoing officers were John Barry, Hermosa Beach, recording secretary; Joe DuRoss, Manhattan, treasurer; and Auten J. Bush, sergeant-at-arms.

Enrolled In Driver Class

Pete S. Zamperini, 2717 Sono-University of Southern California Ave., is enrolled in the basic course and an advanced workshop in driver education. Southern California has the assistance of the Allstate Foundation in offering the course.

Membership in the advanced workshop is made up of driver education teachers while persons enrolled in the basic course are meeting requirements for the special driver education credential.
