Pedestrian Dies After Accident

Funeral services will be held today in Anaheim for Henry J. Lee, 50, who died Saturday from injuries received when he was struck by a car in Redondo Beach on Aug. 23.

Lee, who lived at 3806 Newton Ave., Walteria, up to a year ago, was taken to Harbor General Hospital where he died without ever regaining consciousness. The driver of the car was not held. Police said that Lee was running, and ran into the side of the car at the intersection of Redondo Beach Blvd. and Felton Lane.

Services will be held today at 2 p.m. at the Backs, Campbell and Kaulbar Mortuary in Anaheim conducted by the Rev. Robert Kevorkian of the Baptist Church. Interment will follow.

La. Powell, city land use investigator, who is also chairman of the union's educational committee.

The credit union is a member of the Federal Credit Union League, and all officers are bonded, Bernstein said. Operation of the non-profit concern will be in accordance to established practices for employees' credit unions.

Information about participating in the organization may be obtained by calling any of the officers.

REV. MILTON ELLITHORPE To Address Youth Rally

10 CHURCHES PLAN YOUTH RALLY HERE

A Youth Rally for the ten churches of the Centinela District will be held on Monday night, Sept. 14 at 7:30 in the Foursquare Church, 1207 El Prado, the Rev. James P. Lowen announced this week.

A musical program has been planned and the speaker will be the Rev. Milton Ellithorpe.

A popular speaker at summer camps and Youth meetings all over the country, the Rev. Ellithorpe has recently returned from an extensive itinerary of 13 countries, beginning in England and including Europe, the four countries of Palestine, and then behind the Iron Curtain in the Soviet Russian zone, the Rev. Lowen reported.

While in Germany he was permitted to fly the Berlin Airlift and land at the Great Tempelhoff Airport in Berlin, where he was enabled to work in various denominations. The Rev. Ellithorpe was permitted to speak in the largest bunkers and refugee camps where displaced persons of Poland, Austria, Russia and Germany are placed, the Rev. Lowen said.

Tilden Held For Trial

Fred C. Tilden, accused along with a juvenile of burglarizing the office of the Torrance Sand and Gravel Co., was bound over to Superior Court for trial Sept. 22, when he appeared in South Bay Municipal Court this week for a preliminary hearing.

Tilden is charged with complicity in the theft of a payroll check book, a typewriter, and a power drill.

At the time of his arrest he lived and worked in Gardena.

Rites Held for Accident Victim, Wife 'Improved'

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Stone and Myers Chapel for Raymond G. Kiser, 27, who was fatally injured last week when his car struck a truck at 100th St. and Normandie Ave.

His wife, Thalia, 29, also injured in the accident, was reported in improved condition Tuesday at Harbor General Hospital, where she was taken suffering from a skull fracture and head abrasions.

Kiser's car plowed into a pickup truck late last Wednesday evening, and glanced off into a power pole. He succumbed Thursday at Harbor General Hospital.

Kiser and his wife lived at 1401 W. 182nd St. with a sister-in-law, Mrs. Martha Harrison. The victim was employed as a merchant seaman.

Services were conducted by the Rev. John Taylor of the First Methodist Church, and burial followed at Pacific Crest Cemetery. Survivors, besides his wife and sister-in-law, include his mother, Beulah Kiser, of Keokuk, Ia.; two brothers, Harold, of Seattle, Wash. and Donald, of Mississippi; and two sisters, both of Keokuk.

LIVESTOCK LAND
Two-thirds of the livestock of the United States is raised west of the Mississippi river.

AREAS COMPARED
Africa's area is roughly three times that of Europe.

While in Germany he was permitted to fly the Berlin Airlift and land at the Great Tempelhoff Airport in Berlin, where he was enabled to work in various denominations. The Rev. Ellithorpe was permitted to speak in the largest bunkers and refugee camps where displaced persons of Poland, Austria, Russia and Germany are placed, the Rev. Lowen said.

At the time of his arrest he lived and worked in Gardena.
