Methodist Minister Returns Home To Help in Anniversary Program

The Rev. Stanley Creighton, the only resident of Torrance to become a minister in the Methodist Church and the son of William Creighton, a charter member of the local First Methodist Church, will deliver the sermons at the 9 and 11 a.m. services this Sunday, which will open the celebration of the 30th anniversary of the church here.

Dr. Crawshaw Attends Driver Education Meet

Dr. Marshall Crawshaw, director of Adult Education of Torrance City Schools, attended the first Annual Conference of the California Driver Education Association held in Yosemite Sept. 7, 8 and 9. Thirty-two delegates representing all sections of California were present. The organization, now a year old, represents an amalgamation of various city and county driver education groups. The purpose of the association is to promote traffic safety through education and training. Members of the association are drawn from all areas of the driver education field, including police education teachers, traffic education police officers, motor vehicle license examiners, school principals, superintendents and other persons whose interests and activities are related. Officers of the association are: president, Dr. Marshall Crawshaw; vice-president, Lynwood Lyons; San Jose; secretary, Gordon Stanton, Culver City; and treasurer, Edward C. Weir, Riverside.

Paint Class For Children Slated at PV

Mrs. Bee Weir will be teaching children's classes in water-color painting at Palos Verdes College this fall. The classes will meet on Saturdays in the college auditorium and will be divided by age: the younger group, six to ten, will meet from ten o'clock until noon. The second class will meet from two to four o'clock and will serve boys and girls between ten and thirteen. During the summer, Mrs. Weir conducted painting classes under the auspices of the Palos Verdes Community Arts Association, and the children's enthusiasm prompted the new series. Classes will begin October 3rd and run through December 12th, except for a holiday on Thanksgiving weekend. The tuition

Literary Coach To Address Manuscripters

Bert Mitchell Anderson, literary instructor and personal coach for members of Writer's Market League, will speak at the Southwest Manuscripters next meeting, which is to be held on Friday evening, Sept. 18, at 8 o'clock, in Hermosa Beach. Anderson has acted as literary instructor and individual coach at Writer's Seminar to many outstanding and nationally known writers. His pupils claim him to be a stimulating and dynamic teacher, one who keeps in touch with all of the main currents and key people in the marketing world of literature.

Final winners for the article contest will be announced at this meeting, Jack Baldwin, editor of the Torrance Herald, is serving as chairman on the contest judging committee. His assistants are Sam Stewart, managing editor of the South Bay Daily Breeze and Baxter Omohundry, harbor editor of the Long Beach Press-Telegram.

A series of lectures were delivered by Anderson during the past summer months, at the Writer's Market League. Teaching the writing of the novel, article, and short story, is Anderson's specialty. Final winners for the article contest will be announced at this meeting, Jack Baldwin, editor of the Torrance Herald, is serving as chairman on the contest judging committee. His assistants are Sam Stewart, managing editor of the South Bay Daily Breeze and Baxter Omohundry, harbor editor of the Long Beach Press-Telegram. The Manuscripters meet the third Friday evening of every month at the recreation hall of Clark Stadium, Valley Rd., Hermosa Beach. Membership is open to anyone seriously interested in writing. Details may be obtained by calling the city secretary, Elsie Pestoff, at Frontier 5-3464.
