Riviera Needlewomen Ready for Ingathering

Hollywood Riviera women who belong to the "Charity that Helps Other Charities," the Needlework Guild of America, will take the fruits of their labors to a special ingathering tea at San Pedro Community Hospital next Thursday, Sept. 24, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Although organized only two months ago, the local branch of the national organization, working in three separate groups, already has completed a baby layette and collected many children's garments, Mrs. Henry Graef, chairman, revealed.

Heading the separate working divisions are Mesdames Willie Key, George Weston, and T. Burman. Tuesday prior to the ingathering, all the groups will bring their work to the Paseo de Gracia home of Mrs. Key, and discuss future plans over luncheon.

Clothing will be re-distributed to the less privileged in this area following the ingathering, which is open to the public.

Seaside Room Moms Learn PTA Duties

Seaside PTA room mothers will tackle duties enthusiastically and well-informed this year, Mrs. Paul Roettger, room mother chairman, reported this week.

Over 30 mothers attended the first group room mothers meeting Thursday at the school auditorium, hearing Walter Rehbold, principal, tell of the many ways in which they may help in the organization. Their principal function, he said, is to act as a liaison officer between the teacher and the parent.

Teachers met with their respective room mothers at the close of the session to discuss plans for group conferences to be held Sept. 23 and 24.

Feature Film At Tuesday Council Meet

"Farewell to Childhood," a film, will feature the first open meeting of Torrance Council PTA next Tuesday morning, Sept. 22, at the First Baptist Church here. Showing will begin at 9:45 o'clock with Dr. Vernon Sheblak, Waleria School principal, leading the discussion following the presentation.

Workshops will be conducted by council officers and chairmen at the close of the business session. All unit chairmen are expected to attend these workshops in preparation for the year's PTA work, Mrs. John L. Hays, publicity chairman, said.

Waleria PTA Fetes Teachers

Teachers were honor guests Thursday of last week when the executive board of Waleria PTA hosted a luncheon in the school auditorium.

Nearly 40 people enjoyed the menu of almond rice, Paradise salad, hot rolls, deep-dish apple pie, and coffee. Floral centerpieces arranged by Mrs. Hector Herrera carried out a fall motif in table decor.

Board members will hold their next meeting Oct. 1 at 7:30 p.m. at the 24509 Winlock Dr. home of Mrs. E. B. Fra.

Parent Education Class Will Begin Next Tuesday

Parents, educators, and others whose work is with children who want to learn how to grow in understanding a joy of the school age child will have an opportunity to do so when they attend a parent education class next Tuesday, Sept. 22, at the Community Center in Gardena.

The class, to be held from 9:15 to 11 a.m. is first in a series offered by the Washington Adult School and co-sponsored by the Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA. Topic of the class will be "What Makes a Good Home."

Instructor and discussion leader will be Mrs. Helen Miller, an experienced leader in the field of parent education; a graduate of UCLA with an AB in psychology, and a former elementary school teacher and instructor of industrial art education for teachers.

Mrs. Miller is the mother of a son and a daughter, and is at present a teacher of parent education, Los Angeles City Schools, and manager, Parent-Teacher Study Team, Los Angeles City District PTA.
Succeeding classes in the 10-week course will be given each Tuesday morning at the same place. Each will deal with various facets of the class topic. "Enjoying Your School Age Child" and will be supplemented with a film, a drama, question and answer period, and books for skillful parents or resource consultants.

Child care will be available at the Center for children of parents attending these classes. All interested parents are invited to attend.

Beta Sigma Phi Launches Rushing Season Oct. 1

Plans for "rushing" new members highlighted last Wednesday's meeting of Beta Sigma Phi, international business sorority, held at the 1423 Anapola Chambers.

First function of the new season will be an open meeting for the rushees on Oct. 1 at the Wilmington home of Miss Oleta Hale. At the session, the prospective members will have an opportunity to learn the club's aims and purposes.
Tentative plans were slated for holding a Christmas party for the children at Harbor General Hospital. Details of the project will be arranged when the executive board meets Oct. 5 at the 926 Maple Ave. home of the president, Mrs. Harold Roberts.

Mrs. Roberts currently is selling tickets to the Long Beach City Council Beta Sigma Phi "Gold and Silver Ball" to be held Oct. 3 at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. Jimmy Whitmore's orchestra will play for the event, and proceeds will be turned over to the Sister Kenny Foundation.

Those wishing to attend the philanthropy fete may obtain tickets by calling Mrs. Roberts at FAirfax 8-7240.

Rivierans Hear School Story Wednesday

"Our School Now and Tomorrow," discussed in both abstract and material terms, will be the theme of next Wednesday's first full meeting of Hollywood Riviera PTA, to be held at the school.

Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of Torrance Unified School District, will speak on the aims of the educational system, while Assistant Superintendent Emeritus, Bert Long, chaplain; Judy Wright, sergeant-at-arms; and Peggy Wood, sanitary engineer.

MEET AT PALMS MONDAY NIGHT

Members of the local Business and Professional Women's Club will be the first to dine at "The Palms," new restaurant on Carson St., when they meet there next Monday night, Sept. 21, at 7:30 o'clock.
An after-dinner talk by Rosemary DeCamp (Mrs. John Shidler) on her career in acting will highlight the program.

Ghost Stories Add Thrills To Small Fry Slumber Party

None of the little girls got much sleep last Friday night when they joined six-year-old friend Bonnie Mae Leatherman at the 811 Cota Ave. home of her grandmother, Mrs. Ruby Beck.

After refreshments, the girls sat around in a circle and told ghost stories, each trying to top the other with a spine-chilling tale.
Joining in the fun were Bonnie's cousins, Jill and Jan Eckersley, and three neighborhood friends, Linda Sue Corder, Mary Palmer, and Cookie Powers.

Nativity Moms Volunteer for Safety Work

With "No Accidents This Week" as their slogan, eight volunteers of Nativity Mothers Club, in co-operation with the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, helped regulate traffic and parking at Nativity School this week.

Joining in the safety effort were Mesdames J. Powers, chairman; J. Jacobson, M. Bondreaux, B. La Fontaine, A. Snow, Francis Dragotto, William Carey, and L. Patrick.

The group will continue the practice as long as it seems necessary, Mrs. Powers told club members when they met last Tuesday night at the parish hall. A record-breaking crowd of 150 attended the session.

Plans were charted for a paper drive next Thursday, Sept. 24, at the school grounds. Captaining the drive are the room mothers, Mesdames Peggy Baker, Mrs. Dabbs, Bruno Croml, Frank Dalton, Arthur Gross, Gerald Loew, Mike Gurla, and Lawrence Moser.

New teachers were introduced by Mrs. Ivan G. Colton, president.

Get-acquainted Party Planned By Sisterhood

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will play host to prospective members at a "Get-acquainted Party" next Tuesday night, Sept. 22, at Temple Menorah in Redondo Beach. Mrs. Harry Simmons, membership chairman, announced this week.

A surprise program is being planned for the 8:30 o'clock event, she said.
At a recent meeting, Mrs. Stan Weller, donor chairman, displayed a "donor activities record" and invited Sisterhood inspection. Mrs. Ada Yetra was the first to raise her donor.

The annual donor luncheon will be held sometime in May, Mrs. Weller announced, asking all members to clear their donor affair through her.

Mrs. Marvin Ross, religious school chairman, reported enthusiasm in the current school program. A Hebrew class will be option for children over nine years of age, she said, and anyone may contact her at FRontier 5-4332.

Normont PTA Sets Sights On New Aud

Heading Normont School PTA activities for the current year will be the raising of funds to build a new auditorium, Mrs. Frank Christensen, press chairman, revealed this week.

Executive board members checked construction of the new building as the main PTA project when they held their first meeting of the school term last week. Attending were Mesdames Philip Wright, president; Lonnie Miller, past president; John DeDominic, secretary; S. C. Schuler, treasurer; and Principal Elizabeth B. Jordan.

The group also charted plans for an introductory tea for new kindergarten mothers, to be held Tuesday, Sept. 29, 1:30 p.m., at the school.

Breakfast Set By Seaisiders

Everyone is going to get acquainted in Seaside PTA this year, Mrs. William Strittmatter, ways and means chairman, announced.

At a meeting held in her Doris Way home last Thursday, plans were formulated for the get-acquainted breakfast, to be held Monday, Sept. 28, at the 5428 Sharynne Lane home of Mrs. R. G. Parke.

Helping with preliminary plans were Mrs. Eusebia Cornejo, membership chairman, and Mrs. James Wits, recording secretary and art chairman. All board members will be hostesses at the breakfast.

FOLEYS ATTEND FIREMAN'S MEET

State Fireman's Convention in Santa Ana is week-end headquarters now for Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Foley, 1650 W. 204th St. Accompanying them on the trip are their son, David, and his mother, Mrs. M. C. Smith.
Last Wednesday the Foleys entertained friends from Lenon Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Huff, at a dinner party in their home. The preceding Saturday, they joined friends from Santa Ana to view the current Philharmonics offering, "Kismet."
