

Garden Hints Offered at New Adult Class

Do camellias need a special fertilizer different from roses and other flowers?
No, says Stanley Spaulding, instructor of the landscape and gardening class currently being offered at the Torrance School of Adult Education. One plant food will provide the nutrient requirements of all plant life in the home garden.
Spaulding gives hints like these in the course for amateur gardeners at three different locations — Monday at Riviera High School, Tuesday at Torrance High School, and Thursday at North Torrance School. Classes meet from 7 to 10 p.m.
Many homeowners complain that keeping a well landscaped yard takes too much time, but a pleasing landscape does not always require time-consuming care, Spaulding claims. In his course, he shows the tired gardener many short cuts and simple landscape designs.

Jewish Center School Reopens

Residents of North Torrance were invited this week to attend registration for the reopening of the Sunday School of the Gardena Valley Jewish Center. Registration will be held Oct. 4 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the Gardena Community Center, 1651 Market St., and a get-acquainted party will be held for parents and children, ages 6 to 14, in conjunction with the registration.
Registrants will meet the new director of adult and children's Jewish education, Philip Warren, a graduate of Yeshiva of Montreal, Canada, and a member of the New York and Maryland state bar associations. Warren will aid in the community campaign to erect a new building on Center-owned land at 148th St. and Gramercy.

GARDENING IN WINTER
House plants which will prove decorative additions to your home adding color and greenery to window sills, bare corners and tables, can also provide you with an interesting winter hobby—"indoor gardening."

Church Sermon Topic Announced

"The Explanation That Explains" will be the topic of the sermon to be delivered Sunday by the Rev. J. J. Walker, ad interim Minister at the First Christian Church.
Church Doings
The Eve Johnson Circle will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. Elmer Moon, 1024 1/2 Amapola, Thursday, Sept. 24, at 12 noon.
The CWF Fellowship breakfast is to be held at the home of Mrs. Perry Connett, 1414 Acacia, Friday, Sept. 25, from 9 to 11 a.m. This is to be a "fall rally," and all members are asked to come and bring a friend if possible. If transportation is a problem call Mrs. Barholomew, FAirfax 8-7087.
The CYF will hold a spaghetti luncheon immediately after church Sunday, Sept. 27. There will be a bake sale at the same time.
Gardena Christian Church is to be the meeting place for all the Harbor Area CWF Oct. 6, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.
