1953 TORRANCE BUSINESS REVIEW 1953

Your trade-in will probably do for down payment on any new appliance, T.V., or house-full of furniture at Fred's Furniture and Appliance Store, 1321 E. Pacific Coast Highway, which is owned by Fred Hagedorn and known as "the little store with the big deals." He served with tile Army Intelligence for 4 years. Phone TE 44855 and inquire about terms that will more than fit your budget.

C. and J. Barajas, owners of Shoestring Market, 1553 W. Carson, attribute their success in business to the fact that they have always treated their customers right and so their customers have always treated them right. C. Barajas has liven in the Barbor afrea for 16 years, bringing up 5 children who are all attending local schools. The 3½ years that they have been at the present location has proved that Shoestring Market is the place to go to "Mark Your Dollars Count."

Your wedding just the way you want it is possible at the Greenwich Wedding Chapel, 5870 E. 2nd St., Long Beach, owned by Mr. and Mrs. L C, Doan, who have made many friends during their 7 years at this location. Beautiful Greenwich Chapel is equipped to accommodate may type of wedding up to 100 guests, with or without receptions. There is a reception room, bride's room, and a patio and ample parking facilities. Mr. and Mrs. Doan take this opportunity to say bub to their many themas in Torrance.

"We welcome jobs that other shops can't de," says Virgel Bolles, owner of Virgel's Frame & Wheel Algament, 1759 Carson, who started 9 years ago with a small shop and one employee and now has an ultra-modern plant employing aix specialists. Because of Mr. Bolles' 30 years experience in this line he has many satisfied customers. He offers free safety inspection and suggests you check your brakes as the life you save may be yours.
