

Sepulveda Gardens Visited by Stork

By SUE BURK
Frontier 5-4549.

The stork has visited Mr. and Mrs. Donald Phillip Patterson of 22529 Leyte Dr., Sepulveda Gardens. The baby boy arrived on Sept. 22 and is named Deneth Allan. Congratulations to the proud parents. The Pattersons are cousins of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Anstley of Macafee Rd.

Lots of fun for several couples the other night. One couple was comprised of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anstley, Walt and Louise went to a barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gartland of Victoria Terrace. After the party they rolled back the rug and really had a big time dancing. Though their shoes were worn thin, the kids came home happy faces.

Costume jewelry party was held this last Thursday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorne of Zakon. Among the guests were Bunny Eberle, Lorene White, Rose Versellona, Alpha Benz, Betty Mitchell, Jeri Giarson, Virginia Nauman, Myrtle Nix, Sue Burk, Lois Leonard, Lillian Baker and, of course, the wonderful hostess, Peg Thorne. Refreshments of coffee, cake topped with whipped cream (to make wee girls happy) were served. Very delicious cake and a lovely party, thanks to Peg.

Lots of luck for getting well to little six-year-old Joan Katherine Middlebrook, of 5229 Doris Way. Joan had her tonsils removed Saturday the 26th of September. It is really nice to have all the ice cream you can eat, but not very enjoyable when you have a sore throat, so hurry and get well Joan. The children in your second grade classroom miss you terribly.

Just a short item on this. If anyone wants a little kitten, just walk up and down either Macafee or Zakon Rd. There seems to be quite a few of the little

An enjoyable week-end was spent by the Holstins of Zakon Rd. with Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Ryckman of Edwards Air Base, Calif. A surprise for Floyd Holstin, as the boys of Troop 3 presented him with a tan garrison shirt for being the Scoutmaster with them at the Third National Jamboree held at Irvine Ranch, Newport. Floyd also got in a little good hunting with the Ryckmans. Glad you had fun, kids, and just wish I could have gone with you.

Cubs Fete Parents At Wiener Roast

We'll lead right off with a members of the pack feted their parents at Huntington State report a wonderful time. The Swansons are also adding a few pieces of landscape. Wish you lots of luck and know your place will take on added beauty.

cuties wandering around with no home and no one to take care of them. Evidently someone dropped them off near here, and there are a few more than I or my neighbors can take care of. They really are cute, though.

Still more decorating being done on Macafee Rd. This time it is Mr. and Eddie Swanson, who are painting and refinishing the outside of their home. The Swansons are also adding a few pieces of landscape. Wish you lots of luck and know your place will take on added beauty.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland White of Zakon over Sunday was Mrs. Gladys White of Pasadena. Going visiting Friday evening were Mrs. F. W. Burk and children, who spent the evening in Playa del Rey with Sue's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jeff Poor.

Not quite considered a news item, but well worth printing is the fact that so many articles are missing in and around the homes of this immediate area. From the grapevine is the news that a bicycle was taken from a home in the Ranchos, also. Bicycles were taken from two different homes in the Heights. Two homes on Zakon reported broken into, but nothing taken. We are sorry to be the bearers of this kind of news, but the neighbors state that any more damage to homes and property and the police will be called in on the matter.

trying to take in all the habits, and they especially enjoyed the horses.

Mrs. L. Halsey, 617 W. 214th St., tells us that the Women's Society of the Torrance Methodist Church held a most successful flummage sale. Not only did the ladies make themselves some money, (for their organization, of course) but they have sorted the remaining garments and will send the heavy ones to Korea and the summer weight ones to the community center at Eloy, Ariz.
