Begins Crusade Here
Sunday

Walteria Church To Begin Week Crusade Sunday

Evangelist Bob Nicholas of Escondido, California, will begin a two-week evangelistic crusade Sunday evening at the First Fundamental Baptist Church, Park at Newton Street, Walteria, the Rev. Andrew Duty, pastor, announced this week.

"The Evangelist has organized three successful churches in Southern California in the last seven years," reports an official of the church.

The crusade music will be led by the musical team of Sam and Adria Herd. The talent to be presented includes trumpeter Betty Johnson, and the Seminars Quartet.

"I am confident," Rev. Duty said, "that these high caliber services will show lasting results. We are looking for scores of decisions for Christ." The services will continue every night at 7:45 through Sunday evening, Oct. 25.

Western Services To Be Continued

Because of enthusiastic response, the western style church services will continue Sunday at the First Baptist Church of El Nido, 4558 W. 182nd St., starting at 7:30 p.m., according to the Rev. Leland Pisel, pastor.

The wheat tithing film, "God Is My Landlord," will be shown in conjunction with the services Sunday evening, the pastor reported.

The new style of service was started in May at the church on a trial basis, and after the response given it will continue indefinitely, the Rev. Pisel said.

The Christian Pioneers, well-known Western band, sing and play at the services, dressed in Western regalia.
