

Chairman Tells City of Hope Contributions

A tally of funds contributed through canisters displayed in various stores throughout the city for the benefit of the City of Hope netted $242.55, according to Leonard Barron, local drive chairman.

Barron, manager of Kar's Shoe Store, 1281 Sartori Ave., said the funds did not reflect the true amount contributed by Torrance residents. Many children made house-to-house canvasses and turned in their contributions at the overnight telethon held last Saturday and Sunday.

Among those commended for their efforts by Barron were two members of the Torrance Auxiliary Police, a youth organization, Dorothy Harlan, 2121 Andrew Ave. and Theresa Reddington, both TAP's collected approximately $200 during the two-day benefit show.

Contributing more than $80 they collected in the Torrance Gardens-Plaza area were Dion and Dennis Dyer, 2838 Onrado; Curt Harestad, 2849 Onrado; Ronnie Hagenbaugh, 1011 Felbar Ave.; Billy McDeade, 911 Felbar Ave. and Stanley Gonta, 917 Felbar Ave. All are members of Cub Pack 201-C.

All funds were turned over to the City of Hope, a free, non-sectarian institution devoted to the treatment and research of leukemia, cancer, and other diseases. Elmer Karl, founder of the Karl chain of shoe stores, was one of the co-founders of the City of Hope.

Among the other Torrance youngsters collecting for the campaign were Diane Cook, 1221 Madrid Ave. and Gerry Day, 834 Sartori Ave., who collected $50.50.
