

Two Leagues Ready For City Basketball

A minimum of two six-team leagues is expected to take part in the Recreation Department city basketball program this season, Elmer "Red" Moon, city athletic director, said this week.

Practice periods for teams were announced Thursday at a meeting of team managers. The first date open for scheduling is Dec. 2, and deadline for team entry fees is Dec. 14, Moon said. Teams may schedule practice periods through the Recreation office.

Schedules for regular practice games between league teams will be drawn on Dec. 14.

On the basis of six-team leagues, the entry fee has been set at $40 per team, which will cover officials' pay and trophy costs for a double round robin, or ten games, for each team.

Teams involved in any playoff games will share the additional costs equally, Moon reported. Managers will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the Recreation office, 1347 El Prado, to complete final arrangements for the opening of league play on Jan. 5.

Teams which participated in last year's play, and whose managers have indicated that they expect to participate again this season are: Torrance Teachers, "B" League champs, who have a new manager, Don Porter; Harvey Machine, "B" League runner-up; Freshie's Men's Shop, Ron Hulsing, manager; Torrance National Bank, Ken Miller, manager; Redondo Eagles, Ed Coury, manager, last year's "A" League runner-up team and consolation bracket winners in the Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation Championships.

Lee Solomon, sponsor of Lee's Banner Drugs, "A" champs, has expressed a desire to defend the title, but has stated that he must completely reorganize his team due to the fact that he has moved his place of business.

Harry Theodosis is striving to reorganize the National Supply Blues, and Jerry Jackson is doing the same at Midland Rubber. Moon reported. New teams will be Bob Kulp's Knolls Pharmacy, and Vic Ordaz has a quintet lined up from El Pueblo. Herb Curley has a team ready, but to date has no sponsor. Moon said. Last year's teams which were not represented at the first meeting were: Allen's Burgers, Hot 'N' Hot, Manhattan All Stars, Penwick's Shoes, and George's.
