

Group Gives 'Smorgasbord' New Meaning

Funk and Wagnall's dictionary defines Smorgasbord as "Scandinavian hors d'oeuvres," but the South Bay Final Fifth will give the word a new meaning at their Smorgasbord dinner on June 13.

Included on the menu will be hickory smoked turkey, tongue, chopped liver, Italian spaghetti, chopped herring (Kosher style), chicken, salads, vegetables, beverages, desserts and other savory dishes which go far beyond mere hors d'oeuvres.

All foods will be specially prepared by expert cooks, as in the past. Only 400 tickets

Gaucha Given Scholarship

James McGee, Jr., a member of the graduating class of Narbonne High School, has been awarded a $650 scholarship for study at Palos Verdes College this fall. It has been announced by the College's president, John A. Howard.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. McGee, 2314 Pacific Coast Hwy., Lomita.

McGee, known as "Mike," has been active in student affairs at Narbonne. He is a member of the Eubieban Honor Society and the Vigilantes, an honorary service organization. He is president of the Scholarship Society and of the Spanish Club, captain of the Auxiliary Fire Department, and a member of the Student Congress.

At Palos Verdes College Mike will participate in the College's travel-study program, by which the entire, lower division student body's classwork is supplemented by extensive trips to Sacramento, Washington, D.C., and other Eastern cities, and Mexico. Palos Verdes College has now added an upper division, and offers both junior college and senior college degrees.

The dinner will be held at the Alan-Richard Hall at 6 p.m. A board meeting will be held to order by calling Sntizer at ME 4-0644, or W. J. Brodsky at FA 8-8229.

LAW IN ACTION

COPYRIGHTS

America has led the way in protecting the fruit of man's mind. Our literature, drama, scholarship, and vast media of public information prosper because of our copyright law.

Are you an author? An artist? A playwright? Or are you thinking of going into such work? If so, find out about copyright law. It protects you — against copying, but not against independent reproduction of a similar work.

A copyright enables you to sue him in the federal courts for damages and collect — if someone copies your work or any substantial part of it without permission.

The most important single thing about copyrights is this: Do not publish anything until you find out what kind of a copyright notice you need. If you publish without proper notice, you lose all rights in the work.

As long as your book is not published, you own the script. The common law protects your rights in it the same as in any other property. For an unpublished book you need no added legal safeguard. You cannot register its copyright.

But you may copyright such work as a play, lecture, sermon, or art work, though it has not been published.

A book's copyright may be registered in the author's name or anyone he selects, such as the publisher, who can better guard the copyright or grant proper consent to quote the book, under a contract between himself and his publisher.

Here are some other kinds of work you can copyright: Poems, newspapers, maps, photographs, dramatic and musical compositions.

A copyright is good for 28 years. You must renew it once so as to keep it in effect for a total of 56 years.

You may apply for a copyright at this address: Register of Copyrights, Library of Congress, Washington, D. C. Note briefly the kind of work you wish to copyright.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.
