TORRANCE HERALD

1954 TORRANCE BUSINESS REVIEW 1954

Mr. L. D. Aguilar, owner of the South Bay Ambulance Service, 704 Torrance Bivd., Redonde Beach, states that his organization is ready to handle any emergency that might come up when transporting a patient to the hospital in his ultramodern ambulances. Stocking a complete lune of sickroom supplies along with oxygen service, all types of masks, tents and inhilators are available by calling FAIrfax 8-1166 or versenter 2481. All cells receive prompt attention.

The above 24 foot trailer is one of the latest models built by King Trailer Co., 437 E. Carson St. This trailer comes with a complete bath, electric-lee refrigerator, apartment size stove, choice of interiors and island bed or twin beds, both front and back doors, and panelray heat. This trailer is triple insulated and it's construction, as well as all trailers built by King Trailer Co., was supervised by Walter King, owner. Mr. King personally supervises the building of all custom trailers, also, and any size and type can be built to your specifications. Mrs. King handles the office details.

One of the outstanding organizations to locale their bend quarters in this community is the Operative Plasters & Cement Masons International Assn., Local No. 888, located at 539 We Carson. An affiliate of the A. F. of L., and, more specifically, of the Building Trades Cosmell and the Central Labor Council, Local 838 received their charter in March of 1989, and set up headquarters in San Fedro. In November of 1960 they moved to their new present quarters. For plastering and cements are a statement of the Side.
